THE JAMES TAYLOR FAMILY.

New Kent and Caroline Counties in Virginia.

Notes collected by James David Tillman,Jr., of Meridian, Mississippi.

Fifty four portraits hang on the walls of King and Queen County Virginia Court House. Directly behind the Judge's seat is a bronze tablet with the following inscription:

" James Taylor of England; emigrant, lawyer, public officer; lived in St. Stephens Parish, King and Queen County, Virginia. Died April 30 1698. First wife Frances --------- died April 22 1680. Second wife, Mary Gregory of Essex County, married August 12 1682.

From him were descended President James Madison, President Zachary Taylor, Col. James Taylor, Knight of the Golden Horseshoe, Jon Penn, signer of the Declaration of Independence, John Taylor of Caroline, General James Taylor of Kentucky, Admiral David Taylor, Admiral Hugh Rodman, Admiral Robert M. Berry, and many other distinguished church-men, soldiers, sailors and public officials in each generation who assisted in the formation and perpetuation of the colonies and this nation."

Above tablet was given by Jacquelin P. Taylor, seventh in descent.

The following record of the Taylor Family was furnished by Miss Virginia A. Taylor of St. Matthews, Ky., in 1916, and from a copy of the "Family Tree" which she drew for me. Many dates of births and deaths were obtained from Capt. John Taylor's family Bible, owned by John Moore Taylor Hamilton (father of my wife), and now in my possession. (See Virginia Mag., Vol. XXXIV. pp. 269-272, July 1926, for this record). Other data was taken from a book by William Kyle Anderson (a descendant of Commodore Richard Taylor), and Dr. Andrew Grinnan of Madison Co.,Va., in 1897, old letters now in my possession, and many other sources including the Year Book of Taylor Family Association (1924-1929).
The "Tree" states that James Taylor came from Carlisle, England, and was married twice, his first wife Frances ------- before he left England. (It is claimed by some her name was Frances Walker, see Vol. 5, p. 786, Compendium of American Genealogy, Virkus). Due to loss of County records in Virginia, very little has been found about him, although it is known he was a lawyer and member of the Church Vestry. The records show that he settled a homestead of about 1000 acres on the Mattapony River in Dugdale Parish, the part then in New Kent Co. Va., but which was afterward in the Southerly part of Caroline. Hotten's Lists show Zachary Taylor sailed from Gravesend, Eng., June 6 1635, for Virginia in the ship "Thomas and John", and he may have been a brother or uncle of James Taylor. Tradition claims the Taylors were descendants of Baron Taylor who came over with William the Conqueror, and was ancestor of the Earls of Pennington.

Frances the first wife of James Taylor, died Sept. 22 1680, leaving four children. He married second, August 12 (or IOth) 1682, Mary Gregory, dau. of John Gregory and wife Elizabeth Bishop. James Taylor died April 30 1698, and was buried on his farm about 8 miles south of the present town of Bowling Green in Caroline Co. Va. (In 1900 the place was owned by Maj. William Pendleton, a descendant). His widow later married Rowland Thomas of Caroline County.

NOTE

Letter dated June 6 I94I, from Mrs. J. L. Hagan, Librarian, Public Library, Danville, Virginia. Addressed to: Mr. J. D. Tillman, Jr., Meridian, Miss.

Dear Mr. Tillman:

I had not forgotten my promise to send you the wills of John and Rebecca Moore, but had to await chances to copy them when I was not busy. To me, John's will opens up several interesting questions. First it confirms the tradition that he was "of Caroline", which county was originally part of Spottsylvania. Port Royal was on one side of the Rappahannock in Caroline, and the home of the Conways (Rebecca's) was Port Conway just opposite but in King George county.. It is established that President Madison was born at Port Conway, where his mother was in the care of her mother, Rebecca Moore. So it seems that when John Moore married the widow Conway, he just moved across the river, but retained his land and property in Port Royal, to be later left to his son William. Another interesting point. He mentions his "Grand-daughter Jane Thomas", so he must have been married before. To whom ? and who was Jane's mother, who married _____ Thomas ? So far I have no information. There is recorded an Ann Moore who married William Thomas in Orange, but she is given as the daughter of Col. Francis Moore. I would like to borrow her, as the dates fit, but am not equal to the crime!

Sincerely yours, Janie Moore G. Hagan.

NOTE
Letter from Felix Haywood Gilbert of Washington, Wilkes Co. Ga., addressed to his nephew , John M.Taylor, Esquire, Huntsville, Madison Co.Ala.

Washington 25 Apl.I8I3.

Dear John:

It has pleased God that I should survive a winter of confinement & severe suffering, once more to feel the genial warmth of the Spring & to witness the wonderful effects of his divine power, in the reanimated appearance of all nature. Blessed & praised be his name for all things- for his mercies & his chasttisements- thro the latter I trust I have been enabled by Grace, to feel more as I ought to do the former, & I hope to account my sufferings as the greatest of blessings. Humanly speaking, when I wrote you in Nov. it seemed impossible, I could survive much longer Yet I am still here & with but little change, my strength has somewhat declined, but am still able to ride 6 or 8 miles in a carriage of a morning, the latter part of the day is generally a scene of suffering- fever , severe pain & violent cough- which nothing alleviates but laudanum- & the unfavorable affects this has had on my digestive, has brought on symptons in my intestines of a very threatening aspect- it seems impossible I can remain much longer in such a situation, & yet past experience, causes me to anticipate perhaps a longer continuane of suffering than I can look forward to with that resignation I ought. I endeavor & pray earnestly for submission & patience, but nature will sometimes prevail- produce a degree of repining & rebellion against the heavenly will, which is very inconsistent with the duty of one who has been so highly favored & blessed with every temporal good. I hardly feel disposed to acknowledge your letter of Dec.,it appeared indeed as if you were hurried, & your mind very far off the employment- as you neither mentioned your family nor your prospects. That of Feby. was more satisfactory. I sincerely wish you success & prosperity in your new residence- tho I confess I did not approve your removal. A man of industry & attention will be sure ultimately to succeed in any place- sometimes perhaps rather slowly, but patience & perseverance will effect all things & and it may as truly be said their opposites will defeat all things. I hope you are now permanently settled, & will not be discouraged tho your progress should at first be slow. I could tell you much of the vanity & folly of seeking too earnestly for the wealth of this world, but experience which has taught me that lesson has also learned me that experience alone can lastigly impress it on your mind. I will however beg you while pursuing the good things of this world, to remember constantly that other world where we are to pass and endless existence & entreat you to keep in view, that there must be laid up your Treasure. May the God of all Grace, my dear nephew, impress on your Heart, considerations which however I feel, my want of strength & the limits of this paper permit me not to dwell on. Your uncle Wm. has had bad health thro the winter. Sister Gibson continues her usual complaining way. Other friends are much as usual. My little Sarah, tho in appearance, the most delicate, is the healthiest child I know. Nancy Hay is I coceive, the destined partner of Richard Long, when they will join their fates I don't know, probably not till next fall. David Hillhouse is a candidate --- (4 lines illegible). William goes on at his usual gait & and I much fear, as long as he can find a home under his Uncle's roof, will never be anything more than a mere drone. We have not heard very lately from Orange. Let me hear from you immediately on receipt of this & don't forget to mention the name of some respectable Federal Court Lawyer in Tennessee, as it seems at last we must sue N.Willis- or do you practice there yourself. Where is Gilbert & how. Give my best wishes. Remember me most affectionately to Cousin Nancy (related on the Foote line,JDT), and kiss your Babe for me. Believe while life lasts,

Yr. Afft. Uncle

F. H. Gilbert.

A letter written from Orange Co. Va., by Mrs. Ann Taylor (nee Ann Gilbert) wife of Capt. John Taylor, to her dau-in-law, Mrs. Anne Taylor (nee Anne Foote) wife of Judge John Moore Taylor, addressed to Huntsville, Madison County Alabama Territory.

Greenfield 29th March 1819.

Poor mean trifling little animal you are, here I have been waiting looking longing and feasting on the thoughts of receiving the long letter you promised me, and each mail brings me nothing but a disappointment. O could you know how often my thoughts travel towards Huntsville and how many anxious moments I have about you all, I think it would induce you to write however disagreeable it may be to you. John has been very good in letting us hear from you, particularly for the first month or two after you got, but these men don't know how to write letters, there are a thousand things I wish to hear about that they never think of mentioning. I long to hear about the darling precious children- dear Sister Jones, Mary and every body that I love, whether you like your new house, how you are fix'd, if you are pleased with your new servants, and find them as useful as you expected, and all the rest of it. I want to write you a long letter and hav' ten thousand things in this poor shallow pate to say, but how to commit it to paper is the difficulty. Will begin where I parted with you, for if your heart is like mine, every thing I can say will be interesting. We did not leave G. Gilmer's until the third day after you left us. I did not think I could enjoy gay company, for my heart was truly sad, and the serious conversation of my friend Lucy suited my feelings, on Saturday dined with old Aunt Jones, and went up in the evening to HG (?), went a few miles out of town, the next day to preaching, Monday morning up to old Shipman's, staid two nights and back to town, where we staid 2 more, and came to GGs on our way home, crossed the mountain the next day and met Howard M at Mrs. Porter"s, as the next day was very rainy we did not go to meeting, went on Sunday, met with Sister H. and M. Smiths, the little boy astonished his hearers, we called at Mr. T. and dined and came down in company with TH. When I got home, the house seemed lonesome indeed. I went into the back back room as if expecting to meet some one there, but no little pratler met grandmama to welcome her. What added to my melancholy I had that day seen several of P W and L. Glassell's poor little children. Short as my trip was I think it was of service to my health for some time, but I have been a great deal since, except twice or 3 times. I could never get a horse to ride until after Christmas, then Mr. Taylor became uneasy about my health, and rode with me to the Doctors, Sister Burnleys, Mr. Caves, R. Tayors, old Mrs. Porters, cousin Quarles brother Roberts and to see Mrs. Spotswood who has been very ill, this has been about the amount of my visiting except once to see to see Sister H. last fall, and to crawl over twice to R T (Robert Taylor who m. Frances Pendleton, JDT) during Frances' confinement. To me it has been a long tedious winter, my health has been very bad, sometimes confined to the house for two weeks together, but for the most part have been able to go about. We had three weeks of fine weather in January, some thought the winter was over and went to work in their gardens, but we have paid for it since February and March have been stingers. The deepest snow we have had for some years fell the eleventh of this month and it continued so cold that there was banks of it to be seen in the yard until a few days ago a rain swept it off, tis now so cold that I cannot write more than five or six lines without going to the fire to warm my fingers.
H. Grinnan (Helen Glassell, dau. of Elizabeth Taylor and Andrew Glassell, who m. David Grinnan, JDT) was up, shortly after she returned from the North, she looked remarkably well and had fattened every way. She seemed very sorry that she did not see you once more . and beg'd I would send you a great deal of love for her.. I expect she must have increased her family before this, but have not heard. She made me promise to spend 2 or 3 weeks with her this winter, but the roads have been so bad that I have been afraid to undertake the trip, we now think of going the last of this week, if not shall give it out altogether, as I expect Mr. Shepherd in with Betsey the middle of April. When I heard from G last our friend were well, except Sister G, brother's health was better than usual, Sister S had her sixth trouble, as she calls it, a cross little daughter. G. Hay and M Booker was to be married in a few weeks. R H goes on worse than ever [illegible] has not been in brothers house for some months. The last letter I had from Sall, she said she had written you about two months before but was afraid you had not gotten her letter. The inhabitants have increased considerably since you left us, Frances T has another daughter, M. Chapman, S Shepherd each something I dont know what, for I never see them. Mrs. Spotswood, Polly C H Conway, poor little Milly T expects in a few days, and for any thing I know old Sister H E Q and Polly T may fall into row, if they should, it will be well if poor old Sister B escapes. I have not seen Nellie W. since last fall she then told me she intended to set out as soon as the winter broke for Philadelphia where she expected to remain several years in order to educate her children, Mr. Howard is to be her escort. Sister H (Jane Taylor m. Charles Pitt Howard, JDT) was here about 2 months ago said they were to set out the last of this month, I have not heard from any of them since. Mr. Brown succeeded at last in getting Miss Biout they were married about Christmas. W. Glassell is married to little Margaret. Sister B. has been quite sick since I saw her, which has been more than 2 months. She talks of going down to see Mr. Adams and his lady shortly. Cousin Taylor has been complaining all the winter, the girls continue to treat me with much friendship, never more than 2 or 3 weeks pass without some of them come over if they stay only an hour or 2. Last week old Mrs. Conway died suddenly, she had been complaining a little for some days, but kept about, she went out, walked about attending to her business, came in said her feet were very cold and that she had a violent pain in her head, sat down by the fire, and expired instantly. Have not seen my old friend Mrs. Dade since you left us, am told she looks very well. Maria Caves health appears to be quite restored. William Woods wife departed sometime in last month. Mrs. R. Madisons mother a few days after with the same complaint, Mrs. Madison was very ill with the same fever gave a premature birth to an infant, but was mending the last I heard from her. A great deal of sickness has prevailed among the blacks here this winter. We had five down at once, lost a clever little girl about eight or nine years old by the name of Mary one of Bettys. A child is still very sick I think she will hardly recover. As I mean to tell you every thing I must go back again to last fall, after I got home turned in to dying yarn had a very pretty carpet wove for the room that was my chamber when you were here, which is now my dining room, moved my ---- (this line is not legible) for a colder place no one need ever wish to inhabit. I mentioned to you last winter that I thought it probable I should have a great many fowls the next, when I should not care half so much about it, as late as it is in the season, we have eighteen or twenty to kill, besides a number we have killed and given away. We raised upwards of forty ducks, and there is never one brought to the table but John is thought of, we have killed a great many fine Muttons and B which we are obliged to make use of as times are so plentiful here we can sell nothing. Mr. Taylor often mentions that if his children were near him he could send each of them a quarter of M or B every week or 2, and O how gladly would I divide all my good things with them. You dont know Nancy how much anxiety I experience about you all, and how I long to see you. I would be willing to live in that dismal sickly country to be with my beloved children, but could wish you were fixed almost any where else. My thoughts are ever on the stretch looking and longing to hear from my children, and yet afraid to do so, poor dear Gilbert what he has suffered, if ever you should write do say a great deal about him I feel uneasy at not getting answer to the last letter I wrote him, as he has been generally good in that way. I was pleased to hear that Betsey was in the family way hoping could she have a living child she might have better health, tell her I wish I could be her nurse when it takes place. How I long to see that sweetest flesh that ever was little M, I miss Ann as much as I do her, I think every day that I can see her cross leg'd sewing with all the importance of a woman, how does little mischief come on, his grandfather wants to see him badly and he and myself chat about him every day, is dear little Felix as sweet as ever. You must say a great deal to all my beloved children for me. Remember me affectionately to my good old friend J. Jones and his wife, my ever dear Sister tell her I hope she does not forget to pray for me and mine, give much love to good Mrs. Pope and tell her I often think of her , remember me to every body that has not forgotten me. Tell William as this letter is so long he must take part of it as an answer to his. And now my very dear child as the greatest happiness I can wish you may that God whom I trust I have chosen as my own portion be yours also, may he by his outward providence and by the inward operations of his Spirit in your heart lead you to himself and enable you to embrace the truth. O my dear children one and all of you, that are yet in a state of nature I beg you may not continue to shut your eyes and ears against conviction, and the interests of this world of such importance, which in a few fleeting years have done with forever, and our state in the next which is to fix us in happiness or misery through the endless days of eternity, not worth a thought the subject appears to me so important that I know how I have done. Whether you believe or not I must tell you my dear daughter that I love you with tenderest affection and am deeply interested in your eternal happiness. I commit you to that God who alone can bless you to the joy, peace, and safety of your Immortal Soul, and that we may all meet and rejoice together in our Redeemers Kingdom shall be the latest prayer of your ever affectionate

Mother

Ann Taylor.

I am told that L. Glassell made avery happy end, her sister Mrs. Brook is gone to live with him and take charge of the family. I have not heard from your father since I wrote Gilbert. I have for many weeks been anxious to write you a long letter and O how glad tis done nonsence as it is think it will be welcome. Sister B Sister H the Dr's family Polly T all beg to be remembered to you whenever I write.

Another from same to same.

Greenfield 18th. October 1819.

My Dear daughter:

Mr. Taylor, Betsey Shepherd and myself took a trip over the mountains about three weeks ago and arrived at home last Thursday, when I had the pleasure to find in the office a letter from you and one from Gilbert , it has been long indeed since I wrote you but long as it has been, I have written only one letter since, and have at least a half dozen to write before I shall be out of debt. My health has been very bad all the Summer, and when I could be up had too much to attend to to write. We were much relieved to hear that you were all in good health, as so much sickness has prevailed in different parts of the country, tis a blessing my child for which you cannot be thankful enough. Were you only out of debt you might yet be able to do something for your children, dear, dear little creatures how I long to see them and hear their sweet pratling tongues. I am truly grieved to hear you are to be deprived of the society of my dear sister Jones, but go where she will I know she will continue to entreat the Lord for you. O may her prayers be answered may your trials be sanctified to the good of your precious souls, may you become the Lord's children then you need fear no evil. We feel very uneasy at not hearing from William, do let me know as soon as you receive any intelligence from him, and inform us where to write him. You mentioned in a former letter that your brother Phill (Philip Foote, JDT) on his way to his fathers, after we gave over looking for him I wrote your sister Mary, she answered my letter but had not seen nor heard anything of his coming in. Should be glad to hear where he is and how he is making out. We were very sorry we were not at home when Mrs. Pope's sister called on us. I was much pleased with them tho not more than a half hour in their company, felt quite acquainted and as sorry to part with her as if she had been a relation. I am sorry to hear that your fine maid L. has turned out so badly but was fearful you would be disappointed in her. How does Nancy come on, when you write again say something about her, her relations are very anxious to hear from her, tell her they are all well. You have never mentioned Mary in any of your letters, and I feel quite anxious to hear from her. We paid a visit to Mr. Balmain while over the mountain found them both in very good health. It was with much reluctance I left home as dear Nelly Taylor lay very ill, but Mr. Taylor urged the necessity of a trip on account of my health, before we returned the Lord had taken her to himself, I was much distressed at being absent when I heard how often she wished for me in her last hours. She had a very long and painful illness but bore it with much patience and submission and made a happy triumphant end, the family was much gratified to hear that you mentioned them in your letter, and each member desires to be affectionately remembered to you. Sandy Shepherd brother to the Dr. died a few days ago. The 5th. day of this month made the widow Dade the happy bride of Dr. Grimes the seventh, Sally Taliaferro and Mr. Mayo were united. Milly Taliaferro called here to-day I have not seen her look so well for years, suppose she leads a more peaceful life since the death of her husband.. W. Taylor of Hanover was married a few weeks ago to a daughter W. Marshall of Richmond, aged thirty five, am told she is a very pious good woman of the bishops flock. About a month ago Jane Willis was married to Ambrose Madison. Mr. Grinnan and Helen spent a week with us this Summer, she often spoke of you and begged to be affectionately remembered. Milly Smith seems a little jealous at not being remembered in any of your letters. Sister B. and and sister H.P. Gilmer and many others beg alwais to be remembered. Sister Greenhow spent a few days with us this Summer, she often spoke of you and the dear children. Felix is still with us, indeed he hardly ever goes of the place, he has had a spitting of blood attended with fever which alarmed me, he has got clear of both but looks badly. We have had a great deal of excellent preaching this Summer from presbyterians, baptists and episcopalians, and I flattered myself that so many good sermons could not be lost. Last Sunday the text was the harvest is passed, the Summer is gone and we are not saved. I felt truly afraid it might be applyed to this neighborhood, for Alas I see no change, the Bishop in a sermon here not long since mentioned that he had been a preacher for forty years and in all that time he had never known but 3 old persons to embrace religion, for my part I dont recolect that I ever knew one. What an excitement this ought to be to the young and middle aged to seek that best of all blessings before their hearts become harden'd, and their habits prejudices confirmed. I have for sometime entertained great hopes of you, my dearest daughter, let me entreat you again to seek an interest in the Lord, for how can you escape if you neglect so great salvation, O, blessed Jesus pity the blindness and ignorance of my beloved children, shine into their benighted hearts and grant O, most gracious God to save their precious souls before the harvest is passed and the Summer ended. But I must close my eyes begin to hurt me and I must write Gilbert by this mail, these eyes so accustomed to weeping have let fall many drops on this sheet, may the comforting hope of spending an eternity in glory with my dearly beloved children yet be mine, this only can make amends for the pain the cruel separation here costs your mother,

A. Taylor.

Your father bids me tell you that if 2 hundred dollars will be of any service towards laying in provision for the year you may draw on him for that sum, tis all he can spare as he is endeavouring to make arrangements to pay brother R. what will be due him from William, hard times is much talked of here, there is not half crops of corn made and wheat is down almost to nothing. I see so little of Betsey Shepherd that I had like to have forgotten to mention her, she is so devoted to Mrs. Blair's family that when she is here she is doing penance all the time. I wonder you should say you have nothing to write, you could say nothing but what would interest me.

A copy of this last letter above was sent to Judge Daniel Grinnan, President of the Virginia Historical Society, and he had it published in the Orange County News (sending me a copy, JDT). His comments were of such interest that I will give his letter in full as follows:

Orange County News,
Orange, Va.
Gentlemen:

In accordance with your conversation with my sister, I am sending you for your newspaper a copy of the letter written in I8I9 by Anne Gilbert Taylor of Greenfield in Orange County, to her daughter-in-law, Anne Foote Taylor, at Huntsville, Alabama. In order that you and your readers may understand the setting of this letter there are a few facts of that time I should mention. I will write as I have heard my own people, now all dead, speak. Grandpa Taylor (Erasmus Taylor, my father's great grandfather) lived at Greenfield to the Northeast of Orange C.H., where Lewis and Richard Bouton lived in recent years. He and his wife (Jane Moore) had a large family and when he died in I794 he was buried in the graveyard near the house. His son John (Uncle John) who had married Anne Gilbert, then took the place and his son John Moore Taylor, who had married Anne Foote, had moved to Alabama to live. The letter is from the first Anne to the second Anne. Grandpa Taylor's son Robert, married Frances Pendleton, a great niece of Judge Edmund Pendleton, whose mother was a Taylor, and he was then living possibly temporarily, at Red Bud, but probably at Meadow Farm, now owned by his great grandson Jacquelin P. Taylor, where there is now another Taylor burying ground. Uncle Robert was in public life a great deal. Meadow Farm is part of an original Crown Grant received about I7I5 by James Taylor II, father of Grandpa Taylor, and which extended to the Rapidan River, the Northeastern corner of the survey being opposite the mouth of the Robinson River. James Taylor II, had been surveyor of Caroline County but moved to Bloomsbury in Orange County, owned by Mr. Jerdone. The house is considered to be the oldest in the county. Greenfield, Red Bud, where Cousin Polly Taylor was then living, and many other farms were in the Taylor grant. Just to the west lay the equally large Baylor survey, of which there is a memory in Baylor's Mountain near Orange C.H. Grandpa Taylor had a daughter Jane, who had married Chas. Pitt Howard and they were then living at Howard Place just south of Orange C.H., afterwards owned by Mr. Hubbard and lately by Mr. Crenshaw. My grandfather Grinnan, who died in I830 procured fine cherry trees for Mr. Howard, whose wife was aunt of my Grandmother Grinnan, and these trees were still flourishing within my recollection. Another daughter Elizabeth, i. I776 had married Andrew Glassell, and they were then living at Tortho'wald in Madison County. In I8I5 my Grandfather Grinnan had married their daughter Helen Glassell, and they were then living in Fredericksburg and are referred to in the letter. Another daughter Lucy, had married Rev. Alexander Balmaine and they were then living in Winchester, where, in the Episcopal church, a tablet to the memory of this saintly couple may still be seen. Another daughter, Frances had married Garland Burnley and they were living in Orange County. Grandpa Taylor was great uncle of James Madison,the President who was then living at Monpelier, and also great uncle of General Zachary Taylor, who was then at an army post as an officer in the United States Army. Grandpa Taylor had an older brother George who served in the French and Indian wars and was a Burgess from Orange County; of all his eleven sons, ten were in the Revolutionary Army and nine of the ten were commissioned officers. His eleventh son was a small boy at the time. He had lived at the place in Orange County then called Midland afterwards called Yatton by Mr. Lewis B.Williams, the lawyer, who owned it. At the time of the letter George Taylor had died and his children had moved to Kentucky, as did nearly all of the Taylor family. The Bishop (Richard Channing Moore) was preaching in the old Court on the western side of the present railroad track, for the Episcopal church in Orange was not built until about I833. At that time the Episcopal church was the Middle Church on Meadow Farm, no vestige of which now remains. There was a great deal of visiting amongst all these people. There were two or three good stores in Orange C.H. at that time where cou'd be found a general assortment of all kinds of merchandise but the main trade was with Fredericksburg forty miles away. Uncle Robert Taylor had a son, Edmund Pendleton, who in I8I7 married Miss Mildred Turner and died a young man leaving several children all of whom I knew well. Cousin Mildred lived at Spring Garden on the northen edge of Orange C.H., and died there in I88I. She was a lady of great charm and infinite hospitality and at her house all the clan loved to visit. I treasure her memory. The Taylors were Episcopalians and as a rule, steady, reliable and religious people. I cannot identify the Betsey Shepherd mentioned in the letter, nor the Nellie Taylor.

Yours truly,

Daniel Grinnan. Richmond, Va., June 25 I927.

Letter from Mrs. Ann Taylor (visiting her son John Moore Taylor and other children near Huntsville, Ala.) addressed to Mrs. Frances Burnley (her sister-in -law) care of Felix H.Taylor, Orange C.H., Va.

Limestone January 29 I822.

I have been anxious for many weeks past to give my dear sister Burnley a proof of the affection I have ever entertained for her but often when I feel the greatest desire to perform this duty to an absent friend, my dislike to the pen induces me to frame excuses to myself, which on close examination will not bear the test or set my mind at ease, and thus have I suffered slothfulness preval over my inclination, and week after week to steal away without performing the promise made you. If in Orange, before this reaches you, have heard from us through the Miss Taylors, and Felix. We remained here a few days after I wrote the latter, to see what effect the salivation would have on William, who we had but little hopes of. As we had been much longer from Huntsville than we expected and Gilbert seemed encouraged from symptoms the calomel produced on Wm, we went up to Huntsville, and paid a visit of three weeks. Nancy is not in a situation to be with us here, and John too full of business, and we sent Sam down every 3 or 4 days to hear from William. I was sorry to leave poor Nancy who is extremely unwell and helpless, but could not feel satisfied to stay longer from my children here, particularly William who was very impatient [illegible] on our arrival yesterday we found him much better than I expected, indeed was quite surprised to see him so smart, after the messages we received from him which I found was to ge us down here the sooner, he is now able to sit up all day, walks around the house, eats hearty and does not throw up his food, his cough is much better, and I feel a hope he will be spared to us a little while longer though cannot think he will ever be entirely hearty. At one time I thought a few weeks, perhaps a few days, would put an end to his existence, you can easily imagine my dear sister what a trial this was to me such a poor weak creature as I am, what struggles it cost me to become reconciled to the death of a beloved child, when I could see no proof of penitence nothing like sorrow for offending that God who so often spared him through a long and protracted illness and no anxiety about what he should do to be saved, my heart sunk within me, and I could only look to the give of all good for resignation to his will. Once more the Lord has raised him up, and once more my sanguine heart persuades me that the prayers and examples of his 2 brothers, whose piety he has the highest opinion of, may be the means of convincing him of the necessity of religion and a preparation for that important change which awaits us all. Have not seen Gilbert since I came down and begin to think the time long, as I was accustomed when here before, to see him every day, but he is now so much engaged, that he has not had a chance even to see Wm. for several days. The typhus fever prevails in the neighborhood above him, and he has been going day and night for 2 or 3 weeks past, am much afraid he will be laid up himself, he was so unwell day before yesterday that he was compelled to stay at home and take medicine, but was up again by sunup yesterday, it has rained so fast to-day we have not been able to hear from him. Delia and the 2 little ones were here yesterday, little Miss Frances Burnley is a fine smart child, the very picture of health, and talks much about Aunt Burnley, bids me tell you, she is going in to stay with you to make your desses and caps, the youngest has been a sickly child until lately, she now begins to look quite hearty and fat. I am much attached to Gilbert's wife, she is not a fine lady, but a neat industrious woman, a good wife, and treats me as an affectionate child would an own mother. My time passes here so pleasantly with my children that it seems to fly too swiftly away, and often reminds me the Spring is fast approaching, when I must take a long farewell of them, but will try to be content with the reflection that the first earthly wish of my heart has been granted me, that of enjoying the society of my dear children once more in this world, and what is still a greater blessing that some of them have been taught to speak the language of Canaan, can tell of the great goodness and mercy bestowed on sinful rebellious worms, and talk of the views and prospects beyond this poor world, where the pain of separation is never experienced, and trials and sorrow are forever banished. When I think of the great goodness from the hand of the Lord, even in the last twelve months, I feel humbled to the dust, with a snse of my unworthiness and ingratitude. I have but little opportunity of conversing with John, as he always spends the day at his office, but think I never saw any one appear to be more engaged, and was I to judge from his manner of praying, should conclude he entertained a hope. His wife professes a change, and is fond of talking on experimental religion, expect they will either join either the Presbyterians or Methodists, which are the prevailing societies here, indeed there are no others in or about Huntsville. My health has been much better for the last 4 weeks, Gilbert says I am getting well fast, but I am not sanguine enough to believe it will continue, knowing how changeable it is. Mr. Taylor has enjoyed perfect health. Betsey complains less, and looks much better. Debbie was with me last week in Huntsville, she went home with Delia last evening, expect she would send some message was she here.

Letter Mrs. Anne Taylor (continued)

All present join me in love and good wishes, Wm. means to add something for himself, was Gilbert here expect he would say someting to Aunt B. who he often speaks of. We have each mail day for weeks anxiously expected a letter from Orange, but have as often been disappointed, shall send Sam up tomorrow, in hopes of getting one, have only heard twice from Orange, since we left there, and then not half what we wished to hear. Should you or any of our friends write, Mr. Taylor as well as myself begs you will tell us every thing, tell Felix I fully expected to hear from him again before this, should I live, shall give him a scold by next mail. Am hurried, Adieu dear sister, and believe me ever your truly

Affectionate sister,

Ann Taylor.

Nancy beg'd I would remember her affectionately to you. Mrs. Day was here yesterday and wishes her friends in Orange to be informed they are all well.
Added by William:
Dear Aunt:

I suppose my mother has told you all the news so I can only add love & good wishes to you. Tell our friend Mr. Adams that he is frequently the subject of our conversation & that we all unite in wishing him settled in this country. I have no doubt if his property was converted into servants but that he might do extremely well among us, the cotton business is improving. Give my bet love to Mr. Taylor's and Mr. Adam's family, would send you a bail of cotton but mother has filled the letter.

Your affectionate nephew, William F.Taylor.

Letter from J.Howard (Jane Taylor, dau. of Erasmus Taylor and Jane Moore, and an aunt of John Moore Taylor whose wife was Anne Foote to whom this letter is addressed,JDT) addressed to Mrs. Ann Taylor, Vicksburg,Miss.

Mowbray August I5th I840.

My Dear Neice:

Mrs. Rollins sets out tomorrow for Vicksburg, which affords me an opportunity of saying, How are you, and also report our usual good health as well as neighbors, except Dr. Taylor who continues very feeble. He spent three weeks at the Rauleigh Springs but has returned nothing bettered, speaks of trying Lees. Mrs. Chapman & Daughter, Mrs. M.Taliaferro, & Taylor of Rosebud are now at Rauleigh. Mrs. C. went for the benefit of Mary Ella who suffers after much fatigue, heard she was waltzing, therefore she is not seriously ill. Mrs Taliaferro's object was to increase her appetite & Mrs.Taylor to keep her looks, as her health is entirely good. Mr. Morton & family are in the neighborhood, saw them for a short time but expect to see more of them soon. Mrs. Smith & Self visited Winchester in June found my sister in good health & excellent spirits moves about her house with as much ease as she has for many years, but so dim sighted as not to know one oerson from another. She took several rides with us and enjoyed them but thought herself too weak to come as far as Orange. Hardinia was with her but expect will soon leave, tis expected she will be married this fall to a Mr.Pierce, her friends I believe would of preferred another, but she beg'd the privilege of choosing for herself, her aunt will miss, though Miss Jennins is with her still. We have lost our minister, Mr. Jones. He had an invitation to Wildwood, we could none of us object to his accepting it, as we found it difficult to support his large family. The neighborhood he has gone to is reputed to be very wealthy, plain and pious. At present we are without an Episcopal Clergiman, once a month there is service in the Methodist church & as often at Zion. Mr. Thornton our neighbor has sold his farm to a Mr.

Letter

From Gilbert D.Taylor to his sister-in-law Mrs. Ann Taylor, Vicksburg, Miss. (post marked Pulaski, Tenn.).

Falls of Pigeon Roost, 23rd. June I840.

My very dear Sister:

Except that I have occasionally heard from you and my brother thro the medium of Mr. Bell or others visiting to Vicksburg, I should have been entirely ignorant of your existence; for my brother having declined answering my letters, I have had no direct communications from the family for sixteen or eighteen months. My letters remaining unanswered I was forced to the conclusion, that my correspondence was declined. I have felt less disposition to murmur at this knowing my inability as a letter writer, and that my communications could possess but little interest. But still I have felt great anxiety to receive intelligence of the situation of the family of the only brother I have on earth. I cannot for a moment suppose that because he was ruffled at a communication I made to him on the subject of a protested bill sometime since, and which proceeded from my ignorance in such transactions, that he would harbor bitterness of spirit towards me, as to induce him to cast me from him. I must therefore place it to the account of my tiresomeness and lameness as a correspondent. Yet he might in the long-long time that has passed in utter silence, have devoted some moment of leisure, some rainy day, to let me know he was alive and that I was not utterly forgotten. As this has not been the case, I now make an appeal to your benevolence. You certainly will not deny me the small effort required on your part to bestow the gratification of letting us hear from you once more by direct communication. At one time we were informed that my Brother had gone to Europe to dispose of bonds for the Vicksburg shipping company, and presuming that you accompanied him, were flattering ourselves that we should receive a communication bearing date at London or Liverpool, but as the expected letter never reached us we accounted for your silence by supposing that the letter from Europe miscarried. It was only a recent piece of information to us, that you did not make the trip to Europe. Where your family have resided for the last eighteen months we were not apprised, except that I would occassionally hear that you were in Vicksburg in the winter. As Mr. Bell informs us he expects to be entained in Vicksburg a few days I presume he expects to visit you, and that you will not retire from town before this reaches it. You have doubtless been informed that my relations in life have been increased so as to make me the grandfather of three children. Two of them you have seen, the third, Delia's daughter is avery pretty little affair with a Russian name. My wife has had such respect for family perpetuation, that she is now the mother of five boys and three daughters. The last we call Erasmus. In features he resembles the one of that name who is now above earthly scenes, he has however fair complection and blue eyes. He is now ten months old and much larger than any child we have ever had at that age, he is quite good natured and very playful, can stand alone and walk around a chair. If not spoiled in early life, and we should be able to educate him, we fondly hope he will be no disgrace to the name. Our dear boys are suffering very much for the want of good schools. We are compelled to send them to such as we can make up, and unfortunately our neighbors are disposed to patronise cheap teachers rather than good & efficient ones. Our temporal circumstances are such that we are unable to board them out or send them to good institutions. Charles, William and Edward learn very fast, considering their opportunity. Elizabeth is yet too young to send to school. In the all important subject of Religion, I am extremely sorry, that I cannot exhibit a brighter picture. None of the boys have as yet professed, and I fear that neither ourselves nor daughters are as exemplary as we should be. But we have not given up, and I think we are both faintly striving to keep in the narrow way of endless life. (Seven lines here are torn and illegible) ----------. My wife is in feeble health and thinner than I have ever seen her before. I directed Mr. Bell to send her up a case of ----------(?) hoping it might be an advantage to her. Our crops in Tennessee.

of every description are very inferior. The army worm destroyed the hay and cotton, and the enormous floods with which we have been visited injured the corn, and utterly ruined the late wheat, which is not worth cutting. In the meantime I am very much in debt in Mississippi, and am obliged to draw on my resources there for support here, will continue me in this very disagreeable situation. I have been very anxious to move to Texas, but as my wife abhors the very name, I cannot think of rendering her unhappy by such a change. We shall very probably die and be buried in Tennessee. And now my beloved sister if you will write us once in twelve months we will esteem it a great favor. Give us a history of yourselves and your children and such spiritual council as you may suppose will excite us to greater diligence in religion. My wife and children unite with me in love to yourself my Brother and the dear children, and that God may ultimately bring you all to Heaven, and us to sit at your feet, is the highest wish and constant prayer of

Affectionately your brother

HAMILTON FAMILY.

Rockbridge County, Virginia.

This family was from Scotland, and belonged to the well known family of that name. However no research has been made by me as to the early history of the family before they came to America. The early records in this country were sent me by the late Joseph Daviess Hamilton of Nashville, Tenn., from records in his possession. These begin with the statement that:

I. John Hamilton lived in Scotland, where he died at the age of 90 years. He was a staunch Presbyterian, and devoted to their cause. He was the father of :

2. Ninian Hamilton who moved from Scotland to Ireland, between I680 and I690, on account of the persecution of the Presbyterians. He had:

3. Robert Hamilton, who came from Ireland to America. He stopped a while in Pennsylvania, and later with a group of Scotch emigrants, moved to Virginia and settled on Kerr's (or Carr's) Creek in Rockbridge County. He married there; Margaret McKee (daughter of Marion Brown, dau. of Jennet Peebles, dau. of Margaret Wallace who was said to be a direct descendant of Sir William Wallace). Robert Hamilton died in Rockbridge Co., leaving will Jan. I I788 (See Va. Wills before I799, p.44, by Clemons).
Children: (not in birth order)

(4) I. William Hamilton, born near I745-50.
2. Miriam Hamilton, m. _____ Robison, and was the mother of Gen. Robison, who distinguished himself in the cause of the Mexican patriots when they overthrew Spanish rule, and was rewarded with a large grant of land in Texas, well known as Robison's Grant.
(32) 3. Jean Hamilton, born Mar.7 I746.
4. Joseph Hamilton.
5. Archibald Hamilton.
6. Margaret Hamilton.
7. Mary Hamilton, m. _____ Erwin (?)

4. William Hamilton (see No.3) son of Robert Hamilton and Margaret McKee, moved from Rockbridge Co.Va. to Fayette Co.Ky., early in it's settlement. His farm was on Cane Run, four miles from Lexington. He was an influential citizen, a blacksmith by trade, and an Elder in the Presbyterian Church. He married about I775 Mary McClung (dau. of John McClung, b. in Ireland I73I, came to Rockbridge Co.Va., I747 and died I8I7. His wife was Elizabeth Alexander, b. in Scotland, Oct.28 I735, who was dau. of Archibald Alexander and Margaret Parks, m. in Ireland, Dec.3I I734. See Marshall Family by William McClung Paxton, pp. 6I and 75). After William Hamilton's death, his widow Mary lived with their daughter , Eliza Hamilton who had married Jonathan Nichols, and settled in Rockville, Parke Co.Indiana, where she died near I83I. NOTES

Letters from the Mary Hamilton Thompson collection in Nashville,Tenn.

Letter from Eliza and Jonathan Nichols to sister-in-law, Mrs. Sally Hamilton in Russellville, Ky. Original letter badly worn and torn with some words missing, endorsed Bloomington, Ind. (Eliza Hamilton was dau. of William Hamilton and Mary McClung, and sister of Joseph Daviess Hamilton who married Sally Bedinger Morgan niece of Maj. George Michael Bedinger, noted soldier of the Revolution). (continued)

Monroe County Indiana, February 20th I83I.

"Dear Sister Sally;

I believe this is the third letter I have written you since I have received a line from you, but believing they have been miscarried or if received that you have not purposely neglected to answer them when you know a letter from you would have afforded so much pleasure to your friends in this country. I continue to write you, still believing that you are anxious to hear from the relatives of your husband, tho he has long since been gathered to his Fathers, and reposes in a happier clime, and the recollection of his friends might have faded away from a heart less affectionate than thine. His old mother still lives & lives with us. She enjoys extraordinary good health for a person of her age; but time with his devastating hand has made shipwreck with all the faculties of her mind .... She perhaps knows Eliza and brother Robert to be her children ..... but I think she has no recollection of any other of her children ..... Sometimes she imagines herself to be about thirty five or forty years of age, and on a visit from her father, who she says still lives, but where she cannot tell, and his name she does not know. This is barely a sample of what she is. She will not suffer Eliza to be absent one hour, but she is for the most part pliable and good natured, yet she is a considerable charge to Eliza...(Yet) we do not think it any hardship to bear with her infirmatives & to minister to her in her delining days. Brother Robert would willingly take her, and his wife would no doubt be kind and tender as a daughter could be, but I think she would enjoy herself better here. Brother Robert seems to enjoy himself well - his wife is a very affectionate tender woman & suits him well. They have two children- the eldest a son called William the youngest a daughter called Mary Ann. They are both fine children. Robert often talks of you and he & his wife have spoken of paying you a visit. But I think you need not expect them soon. I suppose you have heard of Sister Stockwell's death. If I thought had not I would detail the particulars, but I suppose Sister Ann has informed you. She left I think about the first of November for Rockville where Minerva & Tabitha live and continued to walk about till a few days before she died, and on the I5th of December she bid farewell to a World which in her last moments she called a dream, an Empty Show & we trust that she has gone to join her relations and the company of the Redeemed in the family above. - Oh; Sister Sally she was indeed an amiable woman. Minerva married a Mr. Harris & Tabitha a Mr. Sylliman both merchants and very respectable men and I think doing well. They live in Rockville in this State about 75 Miles from Bloomington, Eliza and John are living with them. Eliza is a very fine girl; but since her mother's death she has been low spirited and no doubt feels disconsolate, she has been soliciting her Aunt Eliza and myself to go with her next fall to see ------ but of this matter I cannot tell. Hamilton is living a ---- in Bloomington, he has completed his Education. He was a graduate of the first Honor. - he is now employed as a tutor in the College - He is quite a promising young man He often reminds me of his Uncle Joseph Hamilton, his turn of mind , and particular his gake & carriage much resemble what he was. He intended last fall to set out for the South and go perhaps as low as N. Orleans; but he did not get ready until it was too late in the season. He is undetermined yet whether he will study a Profession or endeavor to get into some institution of learning. He has not a taste for the former, and the latter he views as too precarious to venture on for a living. We have eight children four boys and four girls, our youngest a boy & we call him Robert he is better than ten months old. Joseph & Mary are much like the Hamiltons, very tall and slender, I have started Joseph to College, he boards at home & rides, it is about four and a half miles to Town, he progresses well. I have some idea of offering for the Clerkship, if I should succeed I expect to move to Town, and should my sons live I shall not fail to avail myself of reaping advantages of a College so justly celebrated. But this a matter of great uncertainty the election of a Clerk depends on the Caprice of a People, than whom nothing is more uncertain. Thank God, we all enjoy good health, and live on a farm where with his Blessings, we can by the sweat of the face gain a comfortable living, and enjoy perhaps better than we could in Bloomington with a salary of a thousand dollars a year. I have learned, Dear Sally that Godliness with contentment is great gain, and I believe that Happiness does not depend on earthly goods, neither in splendid cities, nor on fine farms. There is a City above, a Land of Rest, the Saints Repose, where I hope to dwell. There the weary Pilgrim will rest from his toils, there the Godly friends will meet to part no more- there all the Jars and discords that distract the Christian World will forever cease, ---------- worth our attention and to be unhappy ----------city is the desire of my heart. I received ---- letter from Sister Ann McAfee a few days ago. She talks of being here this spring with her son George to start him in college and even intimates of living in Bloomington to board him, but I think I am too well a ----------nted her, till I see her. I want to hear particularly concerning your boys I had learned that one of them was in Nashville, but did not hear whether he was going to school or what he was doing. You wrote to me ------- Mary Hamilton James to superintend ------- Education. Inform me of the matter with ------- prospects of Educating your sons & ------. We have a very dry season, crops were light, but perhaps better here than in most places. The winter has been severely cold much snow, and grain will be scarce before harvest. For the quantity raised here more than any other place has enduced a greater emigration to this County this year than ever came in one season before. And on the other reason, we are generally more healthy than in any other place in this State.

Jonathan & Eliza Nichols.

N.B. I have sometimes thought that perhaps you might take a notion & come to see us; but I suppose We need hardly ---- you unless you should take anotion like Sister Ann to send your son to our College then I would expect you ---- My family all join in love to you and your children. Write to us soon. Farewell J. & E.N.

Letters (continued)

Letter from Joseph Daviess Hamilton to his wife (who was Sally Bedinger Morgan), addressed , Rock Cave, Logan C. ,Ky.

Frankfort, June I7 I825.

My dear Sally:

On the day before yesterday in the morning I reached this place safely, without any accident or much difficulty, but much fatigued and exhausted with the dust and heat- and indeed, I may say, that I was right sick. After putting on some clean clothes I lay down and slept about 4 hours without intermission, about dusk in the evening I commenced again and slept about I0 hours. I then took some salts, and I now feel much recruited, and except a little soreness which I ocassionally feel in my head, I am quite well. Bless the Lord for his kindness and goodness to me. O may I never forget the hand that supports and defends me. I have commenced business, but find great difficulty in selling U. State notes which I brought up for several persons, and I fear that will detain me some. But as soon as I can possibly complete my business I will return home. You need not fix on any time for my return, because it may be retarded m ch by business. I shall be compelled to return by the way of Glasgow and may be detained there some days. Try and prepare yourself to bear a longer absence than usual. I have declined goi g to Indiana. Sister Stockwell has been over, and has returned home. Mother and all my relations there were well when Sister Mary left home. Cousin Hamilton Gray accompanied her. My relations where I have been were all well. I saw Mrs. McGoffin and old Mrs. McAfee who enquired very particularly after you. Captains Moore and Davis pressed me to call and see them, which perhaps I may do on my return, if not detained too long here. I staid one night and part of a day with sister McAfee. She and Narcissa enquired particularly after you and the children. We had a fine rain here yesterday evening, which has cooled the air a little and refreshed everything very much. Everything here seems to have suffered from the want of rain, I hope you have been more seasonable. I hope Harry is doing well and will make a good crop of corn etc. Ah; My Sally, I fear you have a hard time of it. I would that your situation was more easy and comfortable. But so it is. It is perhaps good for us to be oppressed a little and have difficulties to encounter, otherwise we might forget the source whence flow all or comforts and blessings. When I look back on past life, I am constrained to say the Lord has been good and kind to us both, and how poorly have we requited his kindness to us. What shall we render to the Lord for all his benefits to us ? O,Lord, make us more dutiful, more faithful, more humble and more holy, as we grow older, may we grow wiser and better.

My sons, Oscar and Mortimer, I feel so deeply interested in your welfare, that I cannot close this letter without saying a word to you, I feel more deeply concerned for you, only, because you are older than your brother and sister. O my sons, if you knew how anxious I am that you should while boys learn to be good scholars, and acquire habits of industry and economy, that you should imbibe correct sentiments of honor, honesty, integrity, virtue and religion, despising or abhoring anything mean or dishonorable, that as you grow in years, you should grow in knowledge of men and things, that when you arrive at the stature of men, you may not be novices, or men of fashion and pleasure, but that you may be men of sense, honest and honorable in all of your intercourse with your fellow men, upright in all your actions and transactions in life, and experimentally acquainted with relig[illegible] for that [illegible] the only thing which can enable to live or die happily. say if you knew and felt my anxiety for you, I think you would use every exertion in your power to accomplish my wishes with regard to you. Sally, explain the above to the boys, for I suppose they will not understand my meaning by hearing it read. I should be glad to hear from you, and perhaps may receive a letter from you by this evening's mail. My paper is now nearly written full and therefore must conclude this letter. Perhaps I may not write to you again. Should anything important transpire to prevent my return at a reasonable time, or should anything occur which may make it necessary for me to write, you shall hear from me. But if you receive no other letter than this, you need not be uneasy about me, but look for me when you see me, and not before. Tell James and Mary that Papa [illegible] to very much to see them. Kiss them for me, and do not let Mary forget her papa. Mary, kiss your dear Mother for your distant and fond pappa. [illegible] many tokens of my affection, ever increasing affection already given to [illegible], my dear Sally, [illegible] this. From your affectionate husband,

Jos. D. [illegible]on.

P.S. From the close of this letter one might suppose that I am a kind of Dotard or over-fond. But I believe the more I [illegible] my family the more near and dear to me they are.

Letter addressed to Miss Leila [illegible]on, Meridian, Miss.

[illegible], Tenn., Dec. 14 1908.

Dear Leila:

Please excuse such a tardy response to your good letter of Nov. 26th., for which I am greatly your debtor. We had to hunt up the old papers, and I have had an unusual rush of business, hence the delay in replying. Surely you can become a [illegible] of the American Revolution and a Colonial Dame if you desire, but the line comes through the Morgan and not the Hamilton line. We have no war records of any of the Hamiltons, although I am sure they did their duty in the Revolutionary War. Inclosed is a copy of a short history of the Hamilton family which you can keep, and a typewritten copy of an article written by Mr. Geo. [illegible] Blakely of Lewis County, Ky. for the county paper at Russellville. Please return this paper after copying it. (see copy of this under Morgan Family). Mr. Blakely was conversant with all the facts related getting them from the family, and had himself seen the original commissions of Wllian Morgan as a lieutenant in the Colonial Army, and Abraham Morgan as a colonel in the Revolutionary War under Gen. Washington. Gen. Thurston of Nashville, who married uncle James's daughter Ida, has the original commission of William Morgan in his possession and several copies have been photographed for members of the family here. The original commission of Abram Morgan was in the keeping of uncle Jacob Morgan of Mississippi, and was lost by the family after his death. Aunt Mary Thompson had often seen it and told me of the fact. So you see you come of a noble line of ancestry, and are entitled to all the honors springing therefrom. Grandma Hamilton never boasted of her ancestry, but always said they were " a people not afraid to fight for their country, nor ashamed to work for their living". That is true nobility for you. Fighters and workers make a good combination out of which to bring forth the highest type of American manhood. I am greatly obliged for the full account of all the children of your household. It interested me, and all at our home, beyond measure. I am going to ask Mary Gayle to write you all about our family in all its branches, giving such items as you will be glad to hear. John Thompson has entirely recovered from his almost fatal sickness with only a stiff neck to remind him of it. Say to your father John that we are holding him to the solemn promise he has registered to make us a visit this Christmas. Can't you and Miss Anne run the boat and let your sweet mother come with him ?

What greater pleasure could come to us all than to see them both under our roof and around our fireside? Try and bring this to pass and I will think a great deal more of you. We are still living in the country near John Thompson, and are all well. Everybody sends love in which I join, especially to the dear old grandmother. Be better than I was and write soon. A kiss for Lady Mary Gayle.

Affectionately,

J.D.Hamilton.

Hamilton record in above letter.

Robert Hamilton- Father of William Hamilton came from Ireland to America and settled on Carr's Creek Rockbridge Co.,Virginia, where William Hamilton was born and where he subsequently married.

Ninian Hamilton, father of above Robert, was living in Scotland at the time of the persecution of the Presbyterians from I680 to I690, and hid a pocket Bible which he owned under some rocks, to preserve it from destruction by the persecuters. This Bible was for many years in possession of Capt. Samuel Daviess of Harrodsburg, Ky., and gave evident marks of long exposure and of having been pressed to one side by great weight. The dangers and persecutions of the time induced Ninian Hamilton to remove to Ireland, whence his son Robert afterward migrated to America.

John Hamilton the grandfather of Robert died in Scotland at the advanced age of 90 years. The family in Scotland was always a respectable one, and noted for their staunch devotion to the Presbyterian Cause, and for their exemplary life and manners.

William Hamilton, above mentioned, (greatgrand-father of J.M.T.Hamilton and Joseph D.Hamilton, now living,I908) though a blacksmith by trade was an elder in the Presbyterian Church, and a leading and influential citizen of Fayette County, Kentucky, to which locality he had removed at a very early period in the settlement of that part of the state. His farm was on Cane Run four miles from Lexington, in the very heart of the richest cane lands now so celebrated for their growth of blue grass. His mother Margaret McKee, daughter of Marion Brown daughter of Jennet Peebles, daughter of Margaret Wallace, who was a lineal descendant of Sir William Wallace the great champion of Scotland in the time of Edward the First of England.

Miriam Hamilton, sister of William Hamilton married a Robison and was the mother of Gen'l Robison, who distinguished himself in the cause of the Mexican patriots when they overthrew the Spanish rule, and was rewarded for his services by a large grant of land in Texas, since well known as "Robison's Grant".

Jane Hamilton another sister of William, married a Daviess, and was mother of Col. Joseph Hamilton Daviess, a distinguished lawyer of Kentucky and Member of Congress, (I find no record of this,JDT) who was killed at the battle of Tippacanoe on the banks of the Wabash near the present town of Lafayette, Indiana, and of Capt. Samuel Daviess of Harrodsburg Ky., also lawyer of eminence and a citizen of great influence.

The above William Hamilton was the father of Joseph Daviess Hamilton, father of Oscar, Mortimer, James M., Joseph D. (my and your father's grandfather) and Mary Hamilton. This Joseph D.Hamilton had several brothers and sisters, whose descendants are now living chiefly in Kentucky and Indiana.

The above Samuel Daviess was the grandfather of John B.T.Daviess, who married Leonora Hamilton, my sister.

J.D.Hamilton.

MORGAN FAMILY

PENNSYLVANIA, VIRGINIA and KENTUCKY.

Data collected by James D. Tillman, Jr.

FOREWORD

The data from which the following records were compiled was furnished by various members of the family and their connections, an' also from Bible records. The late Judge L.M.Southworth of the Philippine Supreme Court of Manilla,P.I., collected much about the Morgans. The late Joseph Daviess Hamilton of Nashville,Tenn., sent my wife quite a lot of information about both Morgans and Hamiltons, including a very interesting article written by George D.Blakely of Logan Co.Ky., and published Jan.29 I880, in the County newspaper at Russellville, Ky. This article gives so much information about the older members of the family, I am going to use it as a suitable introduction to the records.

Number Sixty-two.

"In casting the mind's eye over the bright array of eminent men whose names impart lustre to the pages of American History, we find but few more attractive than that of

and as Logan County has for seventy years been the home and burying place of many worthy members of that historic family, I ask to devote a brief sketch, taken from the bureau of reminiscences, and to do justice to the worthy Morgan families of Logan, I must draw largely from the tradition of men who were old when I was young, as well as from the pages of history. I submit a few quotations from a volume entitled "Universal Encyclopedia" comprising the most interesting characters of every age and nation:

"Morgan, William Cadoyan, a native of Wales-teacher in a dissenting Congregation at Norwich, and an author, he died I798.

"Morgan, Prince of Parnyh went on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, and died II26.

"Morgan, the Courteous, a Welch prince, and an able , he died in I00I".

"Morgan, John-M.D.R.S., a distinguished physician of Philadelphia, Prof. of the Theory and Practice of Medicine in the Medical of that city, and afterwards Chief physician to the General Hospital of the American Army, died I789".

"Morgan, Daniel- a Brigadier General and distinguished officer of the American Army during the Revolution, he died I799. His services as an officer were highly important, and duly appreciated by his countrymen".

Those of your readers familiar with the History of the Revolutionary War (and it is hoped all are) need not be told that General Daniel Morgan shared in an eminent degree the confidence and esteem of Washington and that of the whole country, as was evidenced by the reward of a gold medal by Congress for Meritorious servicies. And I now see there is a bill before Congress, introduced by Mr.Tucker of Virginia, to appropiate $I0,000, to erect a monument over his grave at Winchester,Va. And here let me suggest to the County Court of Logan, and the Municipal Authorities of Russellville, the propriety of moving the remains from their silent and secluded resting place on the old Obanon farm, a few miles East of Russellville, to one of the beautiful cemetaries of the town and appropriately ornamented. Let them be re-interred beside her worthy grandson, the late lamented Dr. J.B.Peyton.

It was my pleasure to form the acquaintance of the several members of the Morgan family of Logan in my early youth. In my father's house the name of General Morgan was ever a household word. Often I have heard my father rehearse thrilling incidents connected with Gen. Morgan's war record. He love to refer to the thrill of joy produced in Washington's camp on the arrival of Capt. Morgan with a company of picked soldiers, meeting Washington at the outskirts of his encampment, Morgan remarked "We are from the right side of the Potomac". Washington taking the captain's hand in his, gave him a cordial shake, then in like manner greeted each of the soldiers, bidding them a hearty welcome to the hospitalities of his camp. Thus was an acquaintance formed which soon ripened into a friendship rarely witnessed in any circle. But I am consuming too much space in speaking of one whose fame is not only national but world wide.

My intercourse with the older members of the Morgans of Logan, which I am proud to know has been of the most friendly character. I have learned that near the close of the I7th. Century, three brothers Morgan emigrated from Wales, and settled in the Colony of New Jersey, and from these, it is believed, nearly all of the name in this country have descended, besides many other honored names as descendants of the worthy daughters and grand-daughters of the noble sires. For instance- the Herds, Peytons, Hamiltons and others. A few years after landing in this in this country one of these brothers, moved to and settled on the Deleware River, about 40 miles above Philadelphia. In the early years of the I8th. Century, his son William Morgan, emigrated to the Colony of Virginia and settled in the suburbs of what is now Shepherdstown- then in Frederick Co., afterwards Berkely-now Jefferson County, West Virginia. This ancient town is immediately on the banks of the Potomac eight miles above Harper's Ferry, and opposite the battlefield of Antietam, three miles distant. Here he was afterwards joined by many of his family- among them his cousin Daniel, then but a boy, but who in later life linked his fortunes with Washington in Freedom's Cause, winning immortal honors, and dying with him in, '99, and like him leaving no son to wear his honored name. Mrs. Dr. Herd, late of New Orleans, Mr. Smith of Washington City, the late lamented Dr. Peyton of Russellville, and perhaps some of the Herd family are all that are known to be his grandchildren.

William Morgan was a commissioned officer under the British Government in the Colony of Virginia. Appended to this article will be found a true copy of that ancient commission, which at my earnest request has been furnished me. He built what at that time was a noted homestead dwelling, now standing-a large stone house in the near vicinity of Shepherdstown. Col. Abraham Morgan, his youngest son, was born in this house, and with the farm attached it fell to him by inheritance, and in I787 he married Miss Mary Bedinger of that vicinity, an aunt of the Hon. Henry Bedinger, Minister to Denmark under the Pierce Administration; who finally succeeded in settling the vexed question of "Sound Dues", so long pending between that country and ours. There were born to Col. Abraham Morgan seven children as follows: Abel, Thomas S., Joseph, Sally B. (who married Joseph D. Hamilton) Benoni S., George M., and Jacob B. Morgan. Col. Abraham Morgan was a soldier in the Revolutionary War , and like his kinsman Gen. Morgan, had the confidence and esteem of Washington, so much so that as an earnest of appreciation of his gallant services in the army he bequeathed to him a pair of very fine holster pistols, and a pair of silver knee buckles. When his son Joseph enlisted in the War of I8I2 he presented him with the pistols, which he lost in the battle of the 23rd. of December near New Orleans, while in General Coffee's Brigade. In I809, Col. Morgan sent his sons Abel and Joseph to Logan County to open a farm, and build cabins preparatory to the removal of the entire family. They put up cabins on what is now known as the old Stephen Fuqua farm six miles south of Russellville, near the Nashville road, where he had previously purchased 2000 acres from Ninian Edwards, and where they were joined in I8II by the entire family. Col. Morgan had been a man of distinction in the Old Dominion as well as in the Revolutionary War, and as an earnest of the high appreciation of his countrymen, he was elected to the General Assembly for ten consecutive Sessions. He died in the midst of his devoted children-July 7 I8I5, his wife having died at their Virginia home in I804. His oldest son Abel, whose memory is still cherished by the old men of the town and county, married Miss Polly Caldwell, daughter of Gen. Samuel Caldwell of Russellville. He died in I834, leaving nine children, who with their mother moved to Fredonia, Ky., all of whom I believe have passed away. Abel Morgan was a quiet peacable man, esteemed by all who knew him. In addition to his agricultural pursuits, much of his time was spent in surveying during the land troubles in Kentucky.

Thomas S.Morgan entered the United States Army, being commissioned Lieutenant by President Madison; served in the Northeast In Col.McArthur's command under Gen. Harrison, and owing to failing health resigned about the close of the War of I8I2. Afterwards married Miss Polly Mimms; lived on a part of the old homestead until I846, and died at the home of his friend and cousin William Morgan on Red River, Jan.2 I848.

Joseph Morgan, third son, volunteered and served during Gen. Hopkin's campaign on the Wabash, and in Capt. Latham's; served out his term and was honorably discharged. In the fall of I8I4, the massacre at Fort Mimms in Ala., so aroused him that he and a young friend Solomon Huffster, followed Gen. Jackson's ary to that place, were received and joined Capt. McMahon's company of Mounted Riflemen, part of Coffee's Brigade. Went to Florida, participated in the fight at Pensacola, then to New Orleans, was in the Battle of the 23rd. of Dec. I8I4, and of Jan. 8 I8I5- in both of which he took an active part. His company went into battle 32 strong and only I6 came out- every commissioned officer being killed. . He was honorably discharged in March I8I5. In I8I7 he was married to Elizabeth Adams, daughter of Alexander Adams of Logan County. After raising an interesting family of four sons and four daughters, and having arrived at a ripe old age, he died, lamented by all who knew him, on the 2nd. of Jan. I87I, on the old paternal homestead.

In the fear that some may think I am extending this article to too great length my life long admiration for the noble qualities of head and heart so beautifully developed in the Morgan family would not permit me to say less.

This brings me to the first born son of Joseph and Elizabeth Morgan in the person of Dr. W.H.Morgan of Nashville, Tenn., a native born of Logan. While his parents were comfortable livers, they had not the means to give him more than a common school education. Having lofty aspirations, and seeing that he would have to rely on his own exertions, and by industry and economy saved from his earnings (not ashamed to be seen at work for wages) to qualify himself to embark in the learned profession of Dental Surgery, his energy, industry and economy in his young manhood days won for him the confidence and esteem of all right minded men. In saying this, I judge others by myself having marked him in youth as one of the coming stars of the country. He commenced the study of dentistry about the year I846, and graduated from the Baltimore College in I847. Settled in the City of Nashville in I849 where he remained in a lucrative practice and successful until this time. Although it has not been my pleasure to often meet with him since he went to Nashville, yet the interest and solicitude I felt for the youth has prompted me to keep an eye on the brilliant career of the man, availing myself of every opportunity to enquire after him, reading with intense delight the published reports of the Dental Associations with which he has been connected; from which I have been able to gather a few items well calculated to excite the native pride of all, and stir up a spirit of emulation in every worthy son of Logan. Dr. Morgan has been connected with several Dental associations. He has been elected and served as president in six of them. Has been twice elected as President of the American Dental Association. The honor of a second election never having been enjoyed by any other man. For several years past he has been a trustee of the Ohio Dental College, and is now President of that Board. His resignation was tendered but not accepted. He is Proffessor of Clinical Dentistry and Pathology in the Dental Department of Vanderbilt University and Dean of the Faculty. Is a member of the M.E. Church South; has been elected three times by the General Conference a Steward on the Book Committee. Was elected by the Tennessee Conference a delegate to the last General Conference. Dr. Morgan was appointed to deliver the address of welcome on the part of the dentists of Tenn. at the American Dental Association while sitting at Nashville in 1870, a task which he performed to the satisfaction of his friends, which is shown by the closing remarks of Prof.C.K.Winston, who was appointed on the part of the Medical Association to perform the like service. Said he, "I will not attempt to add anything further to the very eloquent address of Dr. Morgan, a man who is an honor to his profession and a benefactor to his race". It would be vain for me to attempt a more complimentary eulogy upon Dr. Morgan than this, especially when the high source from which it came is considered. It would be unjust to one of Kentucky's fair daughters not to credit her with a reasonable share of the success which has attended his upward march to the hilltop of fame in his learned profession. While yet upon one of the rounds of that ladder, which he has successfully climbed, he felt the need of a partner to share his joys and if need be divide his sorrows in case of reverses. In this as in all other steps of his eventful life, he wooed and won the hand and heart of the beautiful and accomplished daughter of the beloved and lamented G.B.Noel of Pleasant Run neighborhood. Judging her by her parents, whom I, as well as all others who knew them, love to remember, she has proved a help-meet indeed; "One to whom he could with ease impart, each thought and motive of his heart".

With the brothers and sisters of Dr. Morgan my acquaintance has been limited. My information is that they have been acting well their parts, sustaining the high reputation of their noble sires. Benoni S. Morgan son of Abraham Morgan, married Miss Martha Clarke of Simpson County, and died in that County in 1831. His son George M. served in Gen. Jackson's body guard during the Seminole War, and died in Logan in 1821. I have heard him spoken of as a remarkably fine looking man of commanding appearance- being six feet six inches in height, weighing about 250 pounds. Jacob Bedinger his youngest son, studied medicine with Dr. Jones, graduated from Transylvania University in 1827 or 1828, and settled in Clinton, Miss., where he succeeded in gaining an enviable reputation in the healing art, as well as a law giver to that then new state- having been frequently elected to the Legislature. He died of cholera in New Orleans in 1848, leaving a large family, like their kindred are also reflecting upon the honorable name they bear.

This brings me to the only daughter of Abraham Morgan ever known to me, Sally B., the amiable and accomplished wife of the beloved and lamented Joseph D. Hamilton, both of whom are only remembered by the old people of Russellville and Logan County to be loved. Their names have been handed down from father to son, and from mother to daughter, as the standard bearers of the banner of Good Conscience and the pronounced votaries of intellectual culture, and the Christian graces so essential to the social circle. Although Mr. Hamilton and his wife have long since to their upper home in the glory land, yet their dignified forms and courteous bearings are indelibly stamped upon the kaleidescope of the minds of the old people of the town and country. We love to remember their manly little sons, Mortimore, Oscar, James and Joe D. They were little men, never boys, and after they had grown to the statue of manhood and gone into business in Nashville, they were men indeed in whom there was no guile. In meeting their Russellville and Logan County friends their chief concern was to serve them-not, as is too often the case, to make something off of them. Mrs. Hamilton died several years since at her home in Nashville at the age of 56; only one of her sons now living, J.M.,he is a successful and popular merchant of that city, an Elder in the Presbyterian Church, of which his parents were recognized pillars. Mrs. Hamilton had a daughter, Mary, who married a Mr. Thompson, living in the vicinity of Nashville. It has not been my pleasure to see her since she was a little girl, though I am told she has inherited largely of the brilliant qualities of head and heart so bountifully displayed in her mother.

William Morgan so well and kindly remembered by all who knew him,was the first cousin to Abel and Joe Morgan, was born and educated near Shepherdstown, Jefferson County, came to Logan in 1812, married Miss Leah Orndorff, sister of John and Christian Orndorff, lived on Red River near the Nashville road, where after raising a large family of sons and daughters, and retaining the friendship and esteem of all who knew him, he died some ten years since at the advanced age of 83 years. Two of his sons were in the Union Army, one of them was a captain, and it is said and truly said, that they came home at the close of the war as honest as when they enlisted. Oh, that the same could be said of even one half of either Army. Captain Morgan was selected a few years since by his so called Republican friends as a candidate for the Legislature. At the close of the canvas which he had been through, Capt. Morgan in taking leave of his Democratic opponent,"said we met as comparative strangers, we part as friends, I hope you will come to see me at Frankfort this winter".

But for the continuous effort to abbreviate, this article might be extended to a greater length. There are several members of the Morgan family, viz., Dr. Morgan A. Herd, still fondly remembered by the old citizens of Russellville, and the late lamented J.B.Peyton, who,like his great ancestor of Wales, was known as Morgan the Courteous, so will J.B.Peyton go down to history as Peyton the Courteous.

In view of the fact that in this article I have but imperfectly outlined a Logan Conty family of rare worth, one at least of whom has attained an enviable National reputation in one of the learned professions, where several of their noble sires lived and died in the long ago bequeathing to their descendants a world-wide fame, I could not in justice to so remarkable a have said less."

Rural Choice, Jan. 29th.1880. G.D.B. (G.D.Blakely)

The above article having been written by one who was familiar with facts and early traditions of the family, having known many of the older members,I think it deserves this important place as an introduction to the records that we are now ready to take up in detail.

The records are far from complete, but will serve as a basis for any future research.

MORGAN FAMILY.

Traditions of the family say that near the close of the I7th. Century, three Morgan brothers emigrated from Wales and settled in the Colony of New Jersey on the Deleware River. It is believed that most of the family in America are descended from these three brothers. I have made no first hand research on the family, but am using notes taken from other authorities. According to Dr. R.N.Mayfield in his Boone Family History, and Boone Notes, Sarah Morgan was a daughter of Edward Morgan, and was an aunt of Gen. Daniel Morgan whose father was thought to be Edward Morgan. However, Ely's History of Bucks Co.Pa.(just across the Deleware River from Hunterdon Co., New Jersey), states that the father of Gen. Daniel Morgan was James Morgan, and I will use that name until it is proved not to be correct. It is stated that one of the three brothers crossed over the Delaware River and settled about 40 miles north of Philadelphia (that would be in Bucks Co. Pa.). Taking up the Records in detail, we will start with Edward Morgan the emigrant to America, who settled in Philadelphia Co.Pa. (now Montgomery) near Gwyned Meeting House, where he was a member of the Society of Friends. He was son of Sir James Morgan, 4th. Baron of Llantarnam (I562-I653) in Wales:

Pa. show that at a Quaker Meeting at Gwynedd Church, Sarah Morgan was married to Capt. Boone, July 23 I720. At this wedding were present about fifteen Morgans, all listed including Morgan Morgan. (The name of Richard Morgan did not appear as he probably failed to come from New Jersey). The fact that Col. Richard Morgan and Morgan Morgan settled in Frederick Co. SWEARINGEN FAMILY.
OF

MARYLAND, VIRGINIA and KENTUCKY.

These records were taken from various writers on the family history, very little change has been made , except in case of conflicting statements, and then the most probable solution was accepted.
Mr. H.B.Swearingen of Circleville, Ohio, in I934, sent me much data on the family. (Taken from the Swearingen Genealogy, by H.B.Swearingen in I934, and Historic Shepherdstown, and George Michael Bedinger a Kentucky Pioneer, both by Danske Dandridge). Mr. William Henry Morgan of Nashville,Tenn., sent valuable information collected from many old letters and papers of Col. Abraham Morgan in possession of his descendants in Nashville. I think a suitable introduction to the records will be the following quoted from the data of Mr. Robert Scott Franklin of Charleston, W.Va.:
" Gerret Van Swearingen, Immigrant ancestor, born ------- I636,in Beemsterdam, Holland, died -------- I698, St. Mary's, Maryland (will probated Feb.4 I698), married first about I659, at New Amstel (New Castle, Deleware) Barbara de Barrette, born , Vallencnnes, France,and died about I670, St. Mary's, Maryland.
He married second about I676, at St. Mary's, Maryland, Mary Smith of St. Mary's, b. ------, d. ---- I7I3, St. Mary's. (will prob.Sep.5 I7I3) Residence- Beemsterdam, Holland; the younger son of a family belonging to the nobility; received a liberal education; when a young man performed responsible duties in maratime service of the Dutch West India Co.in I656, when that company fitted out the ship "Prince Maurice", with emigrants and supplies for the Dutch Colony on the Deleware River, he was appointed supercargo; the ship sailed from Amsterdam on the 2I of Dec. I656, and was to have touched at New Amsterdam, but was wrecked on the night of the 8th. of March I657, off Fire Island, near the southern coast of Long of Long Island; saved part of the cargo and another ship was chartered and they sailed on April I6th., and arrived five days late at their destination. He settled at New Amstel (Newcastle) Deleware; was quite prominent in the affairs of the Colony; was Sheriff; Commissary and member of the Councl there, I658; in I660 went to Holland on affairs of the Colony and returned in I66I. After the surrender of the Dutch Colonies to the British in I664, he removed with his family to St.Mary's Maryland; was appointed Alderman, under the charter of the City issued by Lord Baltimore, I668; petitioned that he and his family naturalized British subjects- ownership of land was restricted to to Brist sh subjects; petition granted in I669; was inn holder at St.Mary's and owned land there and in Talbot Co.; in I674, built the City Stocks and whipping post; appointed High Sheriff of St. Mary's County I686 and I687; wrote an account -I684- of the Dutch settlements on the Deleware River, which was no doubt for the Maryland Council to use in boundary disputes between Lord Baltimore and William Penn. Quite a quaint character and quite prominent in early Maryland times."

To sons; Thomas, Van, Andrew. To daughters; Drusilla and Lydia land in Kentucky. Brother Benoni, Ferry land suit with Shepherd. Brother-in-law William Morgan and son Thomas, Executors.

4. Thomas Swearingen (continued)

The foregoing seems to indicate that this Thomas Swearingen was son of Thomas Swearingen and Lydia Riley, and was brother-in-law to William Morgan who married Drusilla Swearingen. It would also seem he was founder of "Swearingen's Ferry" in I755, which a few years later became Mecklenburg (now Shepherdstown), and is the Thomas Swearingen whose children in a few instances, may have been confused with those of his son Thomas Swearingen.
The statement is made on page 263 of Historic Shepherdstown, that the Ferry mentioned above was left by Maj. Thomas Swearinge , (will prob. Feb.2I I786) eldest son of Thomas Swearingen, the elder , to his brother Benoni Swearingen. On page 336 same book it is stated that Drusilla Swearingen, daughter of Thomas Swearingen, Esq., married William Morgan Sr.,son of Richard Morgan. This confirms the fact that Thomas Swearingen and Richard Morgan belonged to the same generation. (No proof of which Thomas she md.)
The children of Thomas Swearingen and Mary Morgan, are placed as follows, the first five as listed in his will:

He married _____ Breden, who after his death, married Henry Berry, a lawyer of Shepherdstown.

HAYNES FAMILY

VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA, MISSISSIPPI.

Anthony Haynes the immigrant ancestor of the family patented 640 acres of land in New Kent Co. Va., October 5 I682, for transportation of thirteen persons to the Colony. However, before this, July IO I658, he had patented 600 acres in same county, which he had sold four years later, March I8 I662. This information is found in Historical Southern Families by John Bennett Boddie (Vol.4 pp.86 to I00), as is also a general outline of the family.

I. Anthony Haynes, married, and had son:

2. Thomas Haynes, who married before Nov. I2 I666, in York Co. Va., the widow of Robert Clark, and died in London, England, May I9 I7I8.
They had:
(3) I. Thomas Haynes, Jr.

3. Thomas Haynes, Jr., son of Thomas Haynes (see No. 2) was born in London, England, I686. He married Feb. 2 I708, Martha Jones, dau. of Herbert and Elizabeth Jones. They were of the Parish of St. Dunstan-Stepheny, where many of the family are buried. Thomas Haynes Jr., was Sheriff of Warwick Co. Va., and was Burgess from I733 to May 23 I74I. He was ill, and went to London, England, where he died Sept. I4 I742. His will was probated in London Sept I742, as follows; "Thomas Haynes of the county of Warwick", son William Haynes, son Thomas Haynes, grandson Herbert Haynes, son of my son Anthony Haynes of Prince George Co., son Andrew Haynes, son Richard Haynes, daughter Martha Haynes, wife Martha, daughter Elizabeth Carey, Martha daughter of my son Herbert Haynes, deceased. Witnesses; Ann, Elizabeth and Laurence Haynes. Administration, Sept. 27 I746, by James Wilkes, Attorney for son Andrew Haynes, now residing in Virginia. (American Colonists, 2nd. Series, London, p. I75). He was the Thomas Haynes, Gent., (then a member of the House of Burgesses) who patented 2500 acres on both sides of Stony Creek, Nov. I I733, in Prince George Co., and also I200 acres on South side of White Oak Swamp in same County. Thomas Haynes, Jr. and Martha Jones had:
Children:

I. Herbert Haynes , born Dec. II I709, and died in London, Jan. 22 I736, interred in Middle Aisle of Stepney Church. He married Sarah Mynne , daughter of Capt. Robert and Sarah Mynne, and was born Sept. I5 I7I6. (She m. Ist., Mar. I9 I730, William Dalton, 2nd., Herbert Haynes, 3rd. John Thurston). Herbert Haynes' will was probated in London, England, Dec. I3 I757. He mentioned his father Thomas Haynes, and wife Sarah. (The probate date seems to be in error, unless the will was administered some years after his death, as he was deceased at date of his father's will I742

3. Thomas Haynes, Jr. (continued)

(4I) 2. Anthony Haynes, born Feb. 28 I7II, married Jane Eaton, dau. of Col. William Eaton of Prince George Co. Va. and Granville Co. N.C. He and his brother Andrew Haynes moved to Prince George Co. He patented land, 800 acres, in Amelia Co. Va., Mar. I8 I735. He was Justice of Peace in Prince George Co., I742-44, High Sheriff June I4 I749, Justice of Peace in Dinwiddie Co., April 22 I752. On the 24th. Oct. I753, Bolling Starke and Peter Bolling were elected to the Vestry in place of Anthony Haynes, and Andrew Haynes, deceased. After the death of Anthony Haynes, July 9 I759, his widow married, Col. Nathaniel Edwards of Brunswick Co. Va.

(43) 3. Andrew Haynes , born Nov. I6 I7I8, died Oct. 9 I753, married Anne Eaton, sister of his brother Anthony's wife.

4. Richard Haynes, b. July I7 I7I6, died Nov. I754. He was mentioned in his father's will, I742. On March I8 I736, Thomas Haynes his father was patented I200 acres on South side of White Oak Swamp in Price George Co. Va. On May 6 I743, Richard Haynes petitioned for 550 acres formerly surveyed for Petitioner's father on south side of White Oak Swamp.

5. Elizabeth Haynes, born Mar. 28 I72I, m. Edward Cary of York Co.

6. Martha Haynes, b. Jan. I7 I723, d. Mar. 3 I744.

7. William Haynes, b. Dec. 9 I730, d. I8II, probably married I76I, Juliana Brewer dau. of Thomas Brewer of Isle of Wight Co. Va. (There was another William Haynes of Isle of Wight Co., who m. near I765, Catherine Baker dau. of Lawrence Baker, and died I766, leaving an only son William Haynes, an infant). William Haynes made his will in Chatham Co. N.C., March I8 I8II, prob. Jan. I7 I8I2, legatees were wife Juliana, and these children:

I. Mary Haynes, married ---------- Pace.
2. Susanna Haynes, married ---------- Pace.
3. Nancy Haynes, m. ---------- Holland.
4. Elizabeth Haynes, m. ---------- Boatman.
5. William Haynes.
6. Joshua Haynes.
7. Robert Haynes.
8. David Haynes.
9. Daniel Haynes.

(In Chatham Co. N.C., Aug. I794, Herbert Haynes was on the Jury, Nov. I8II he was a patrolman in Capt. Flowe's District. Nov. I8I2, Andrew Haynes made a Deed of Gift to Herbert and William Haynes, and Feb. I8I3, another deed to Andrew Haynes Jr., and Mary Haynes).

(4) 8. Thomas Haynes, born July I8 I7I4, d. April 30 I749. He appears to have left Warwick Co. Va. at an early age. We find Thomas Haynes in Halifax Co. N.C, Oct. 28 I73I, when he bought 250 acres land on Elk Marsh from John Gibson, (this could have been Thomas Haynes, Jr., his father, who had land in Prince George Co. Va. Nov. I I733, and never lived on it) the land was near Nicholas Smith (D.B. I, page I). May I0 I734, Joseph John Alston for I0 pounds deeded Thomas Haynes 700 acres in Halifax Co. on south side of Roanoke River, west side of Elk Marsh. We find no record as to name of his wife, nor names of children, however taking into consideration family tradition, proximity of their lands, and associations, the reasonable conclusion is that he was the father of Christopher and Francis Bythell Haynes.

3. Thomas Haynes, Jr. (continue).

9. Mary Haynes, born March 5 I725.
IO. Draughton Haynes, b. May 23 I728, died Aug. 30 I742.

4. Thomas Haynes (see No.3) son of Thomas Haynes,Jr., and Martha Jones, was born July I8 I7I4,and died April 30 I749. He moved to Halifax Co.NC. where he owned land, and probably died there as a young man of only 35 years. (This is why we find so little trace of him in the records).There is a tradition in several branches of the Haynes family that Bythell Haynes was a nephew of Sir Francis Bythell of England, the truth of this is indicated by the name of Francis Bythell Haynes being used in the early sons of this branch of the family. If we have correctly placed this Thomas Haynes, he probably married a Bythell, and they were parents of: He must have been about I8 years at marriage.

I. Christopher Haynes, who on April 23 I753, of Edgecombe Co., bought from Thomas Turner for I20 pounds, 400 acres, in Parish of Edgecombe, also 50 acres which fell in Halifax Co. He made his will in Halifax Co.N.C.Mar.4 I787, prob. May I787. Mentions wife Lucy (she was Lucy Pitman dau. of Ambrose Pitman) and children:
   I. Lucy Haynes, m. William Noblin, who was listed in I790 Census of Halifax, with 4 children, 6 slaves.
   2. Mary Haynes, m. Robert Barrow, who was born Feb.II I763, and died May 29 I8I5. He moved with his mother in I798 to Feliciana Parish, Louisiana. No children.

(5) 2. Francis Bythell Haynes, born about I734, as on June I5 I753, he bought two tracts of land in Halifax Co.N.C., from Joshua Bell on north side of Tar River.

3. William Haynes, added as a possibility.

4. Thomas Haynes, added as a possibility . He could be Thomas Haynes, Member of the Committee of Safety, Halifax Co. N.C. Dec. 2I I774 (see Wheeler's History of N.C.,page I85).

Charles Haynes Andrews,Sr.,of Milledgeville,Ga., son in law of Judge Iveson L.Harris who was son of Augustin and grandson of Walter Harris, before his death completed a genealogy of the family from the progenitor to present date, all from records left by Judge Iveson L.Harris who had collected more data than any of his family, previous to his death.

5. Francis Bythell Haynes (see No.4) placed as being son of Thomas Haynes and brother of Christopher Haynes, died between I770 and I772. He married the widow of Richard Smith (who died I75I in Edgecombe Co.N.C.), her name was Ann. Most of the data following was furnished by Mrs. C.Haynes Grant,Sr. of Jacksonville, Fla.; Edgecombe Co., Nov.IO I75I (Court Minutes, page I37), Division of Estate of Richard Smith by Francis Bythel Haynes in behalf of the widow and brothers of the deceased. Richard Smith was brother of Arthur Smith, b.Nov.I4 I732, who left will in Halifax Co.,Feb. 7 I789. The will of Drew Smith was probated in Halifax Co.,March I762. He bequeathed to his dau."Ann" the plantation on which Francis Bythel Haynes now lives, Ann Haynes was a witness to the will (Halifax Co. W.B.I, page 57). It seems that the wife of Francis Bythell Haynes died a short time before his own death. As a result the Orphans Court of Halifax took over the affairs of the orphans. Photostat from State Department of Archives and History at Raleigh,N.C. shows Halifax Co. 8. Hannah Haynes, born near I764.

(33) 9. Francis Haynes, born near I765.

6. Bythell Haynes (see No.5) son of Francis Bythell Haynes and Mrs. Ann Smith, was born in Halifax Co.N.C.,I756. (This date is confirmed by microfilm, Woodville Republican, Miss.,Sat. April 27 I833. DECD.: On the 23rd inst.in the 78th year of his age, Mr. Bythell Haynes- Mr. Haynes was a soldier of the Revolution, and has been for the last 25 years a citizen of this County). He was a Sergeant in Capt. John Dawson's Company, 6th. N.C.Continental Line, enlisting with his brother Christopher Haynes, April 9 I777, and left the Company without leave, Sept. I7 I777, when he returned is not shown. After the War he moved to Northampton Co.N.C., where he is listed by the U.S.Census of I790, one male over I6, two males under I6,one female and three slaves. It is thought that he married twice, but we do not know their names, however it is speculated the first may have been an Armistead, and the second Baldwin. Bythell Haynes left Northampton Co., moving to Bladen Co. N.C., where he lived some years. The Records show that in I797, he bought land from Neill McMillan (Bladen Co.DB 25,p.II2) and on Oct. I8 I804 he was granted 500 acres adjoining Charles Baldwin (DB No.27,p.256). On Jan.7 I805, he made a deed to Dougald McMillan, with Armistead Haynes, his eldest son, as witness, (DB 27, p.336). Then on April I4 I807, Bythell Haynes sold his land in Bladen Co. to John McMillan (DB 34,p.284), and soon left for the Mississippi Territory, where he had probably gone before and bought land, and only returned to Bladen to dispose of his property there, his family already being settled in Wilkinson Co. Miss. He left April I I808, one of a party of sixteen persons, and arrived at "Hayneses" in Miss. , May 20 I808. A very interesting account of this trip to Miss., is given in the diary of James Campbell, a member of the party, and who had probably made the trip prior to this. The diary is taken from a Bulletin of the Louisiana Genealogical and Historical Society, Vol. I No.2 April I954, and owing to it's general interest is given in full:

(This completes the diary of James Campbell).

It seems that Bythell H aynes reached his destination, when he left the party at "Hainses", and it is possible his family was already located there.

The greater part of the data collected about Bythell Haynes and his descendants, especially after he settled in Mississippi, is due to the untiring research of Mrs. H.Grady Jackson,Sr., of Summit, Amite County, Miss. The following was taken from the "May Wilson McBee Papers, Mississippi County Court Records";

Page 44I, Nov.4 I829, Bythell Haynes of Wilkinson Co. Miss.,Deed for natural love and affection, to my beloved son Armistead Haynes, four slaves, Witnesses to Deed: Alfred Ratcliffe, William T.Jones

Page 442, Sept.9 I829, Deed, Bythell Haynes to beloved son Francis B. Haynes, four slaves. Witnesses: Charles Ratcliffe, John Haynes, Sr. and William T. Jones.

Bythell Haynes made his will in Wilkinson Co.Miss.,Feb. 2I I833, as follows:

"In the name of God Amen, I Bythell Haynes, senior, a citizen of Wilkinson County and State of Mississippi, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound mind and memory blessed be God for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say firstly, I give and bequeath to my eldest son Armistead Haynes, nothing, because I have given him by deed of Gift that portion of my Estate, which I intend for him at my decease. Secondly I give and bequeath unto my second eldest son, Francis Bythell Haynes, nothing, because I have given him by deed of Gift that portion of my Estate which I intend for him to have at my decease. Thirdly I give and bequeath unto my son Charles Baldwin Haynes, three negroes to wit, Isaac,Rachel & Narcissa. Armistead Haynes married Nancy --- (thought to be his cousin Nancy Armistead, dau. of Anthony Armistead who was born in Northampton Co.N.C., and died in Wilkinson Co.Miss.,Feb.10 1841). The estate of Armistead Haynes was Prob. Dec. 15 1835. COLLINS FAMILY

WILKINSON and MARION Counties in MISSISSIPPI.

We have found very little data on the family prior to their removal from South Carolina to Mississippi. The following article appeared many years ago in the "Dropped Stiches" section conducted by John Trotwood Moore for the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

"In reply to your query in the last issue, one of our readers has sent from New York, the following data taken from Rev. George Howe's " History of the Presbyterian Church in South Carolina". Capt. John Collins born Nov. 28 I754 in York Co. Pa., removed to Rockingham Co. N.C., about I760, remained one year, thence to Tyler in this district (Spartanburg), two and a half miles above the church, where he resided until his death. He was among the first to come to this place. The schooling he obtained after his father emigrated to this place was from Wade Hampton, who taught for several years in this community. He was six feet two inches in height, well proportioned, etc., fond of good company and especially a good joke. He was one of the trustees of the congregation for a good many years, but did not make a profession of his faith in Christ until he had passed the meridian of life. He acted as captain before (through?) the war and as a magistrate for many years after. As a magistrate he did a great deal of business, but did not collect enough to pay for the ink and paper which he used. This is followed by a sketch of his services in the Revolution. He died April 4 I84I.

"The Joseph Habersham Historical Collection" volume one, gives the above data and adds the following: Capt. John Collins was the son of Thomas Collins, who came from York, England, and settled in York, Pa. He emigrated to South Carolina in I76I and was one of the first settlers in what is now Spartanburg County His children were John, William, Richard, Joseph, Fannie, Nancy and Jennie. Nancy married ------ Thompson, Jennie married Col. William Austin. Joseph married Elizabeth Fleming". A brief sketch of this family in Landrum"s "History of Spartanburg County" adds that John Collins was probably born before his parents left England. It gives the name of Nancy's husband as Alexander Thomson. John Collins married Elizabeth Brown of Newberry, S.C. Their children were Mrs. Sallie Swansey, Thomas B. Collins, John S. Collins, who was known as "Bachelor Jack" and who was put to death by some unknown party, Alexander died age I½ years, and Martha married Sterling Westmoreland. The second and third sons, Richard and William Collins went to Kentucky after the Revolution and before it was admitted as a state. Joseph was not old enough to join the army.

There is some reason for thinking above Thomas Collins who was born in England is the ancestor of the Collins family that came from South Carolina and settled in Wilkinson and Marion Counties, Mississippi, but so far no proof has been found. There are a number of the name found in these Counties, at an early date, but their relationship has not been determined. John Collins was an early settler in Wilkinson Co. where he was a Justice of Peace, Feb. 2 I802.

Marion County was formed Dec. 9 I8II, partly from Amite County, and included among others, Lawrence Couny. Among the Civil Officers of Marion Co. I8I7 to I827, we find the following;

Ransom M. Collins, Justice of Peace, and I8I8 to I82I, Justices of the Quorum, Jeptha Duke, Jacob Tomlinson, Robert Stacey, Thomas Collins (this is our Thomas), Nathan M. Collins (he is the ancestor of former Congressman Ross Alexander Collins, b. in Lauderdale Co. Miss., Apr. 25 I880, son of Nathaniel Monroe Collins and Rebecca Jane Ethridge, and a descendant of John B. Collins), and Iavid Ford.

William Collins, Justice of Peace, Franklin Co., I8I8-I82I.
Stacey Collins, Assessor and Collector, a first County Officer in I826. Jones.
Stacey Collins born in S.C., Oct. I8 I786, came to Miss. in I8I5.
John Ford , was in Constitutional Convention from Marion County, I8I7.

Whether the above members of the Collins family were related has not been determined. The founder of our family Thomas S. Collins is thought to have come to Wilkinson Co. Miss., about I8I7, his wife died within a few years leaving him with a family of young children. After her death we find him in Marion Co. Miss, where his will was recorded Nov. 24 I823.
Two grand-daughters of Thomas S. Collins (Mrs. Sarah Collins Hamilton and her sister Mrs. Mary Jane Hollingsworth) told the writer that their grandfather received his schooling under Wade Hampton in South Carolina. They did not remember the name of his first wife, but the second was Nancy Lassiter, and moved to Mississippi in I8I7, settling in Wilkinson Co. where she died, and he a few years later. . At his death his youngest children's stepgrandmother Robinson (or Robertson) came on horseback from South Carolina to take care of them. The following record seems to place the Robinson family;

" Estate of Frederick Robinson, Box 59 No. 209I, Probate Judge Office, Camden, S.C. Estate Adm. Oct. 28 I8I?. by John McCants, James Clarke who are bound unto John Doby Ord sum of $1000.00, June I6 I8I4. Paid Barbara Roberson her interest of estate, $45.55, -Paid Thomas Collins and his heirs part of estate $45.55. June 26 I8I5- Paid William Roberson, the guardian of Jane and Eleanor Robertson their part of said estate $45.55. Barbara was the widow of Frederick Robertson. Frederick's mother was Frances Robinson of will 2I/May/I8I7. She was widow of Nicholas Robinson who died Camden, S.C.- sisters Sarah Langford, Elizabeth Powell and Mary Ford".

Will of Thomas S. Collins is as follows;
Orphans Court I8I2-I827, page 259. State of Mississippi , Marion County.

March 24 I828 Ervine T. Tomlinson was guardian for Jepthy and Serena Collins and Francis B. Haynes, guardian for Amelia Collins.

BAIRD FAMILY

NORTH CAROLINA, TENNESSEE , and WILKINSON COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

This account of the Baird Family was sent the writer about 1919 by a member of the family then living in Lousiana. While some of it may be based on tradition, the greater part may be considered as authentic data. "The exact year in which Capt. John Baird came to America we can not chronicle, as these records were lost, but it must have been some time prior to the Revolution, as he landed first in Maine. His father was a Scotchman, his mother an English lady.

Capt. Baird married Miss Margaret Birmingham of the Birmingham family in England, her parents must have come to America sometime about the latter part of the Seventeenth century, as this little girl was born near Portland, Maine, married Capt. Baird and moved with him to North Carolina, where their sons, William and James Birmingham were born near Charlotte. Here Capt. Baird served as a valiant soldier during the Revolution, was commander of the escort sent out to meet Gen. Washington on his memorable tour through the Southeastern States, when he traveled in his carriage, as there were no railroads. Subsequent to this Capt. Baird moved to Tennessee. It seems his wife died and he married again. They lived near Chattanooga, near Duck River. There possibly were three older sons, as James Birmingham was said to be the third son. Capt. Baird had also, two other sons born in Tennessee; Archie and Joe. Here we are told Capt. Baird and his oldest sons volunteered and fought in the Florida wars, and Capt. Baird was killed. Then his wife moved with her children to Louisiana, where they owned large plantations on Red River. James Birmingham and William, however, settled in Wilkinson County, Mississippi; here their children were born. To James Birmingham and Andromache came; Margaret Anne, Bythel, Mary, James, Martha, John, Charles, Haynes, Percival, and Cornelia. After these were all grown they moved to Louisiana also, where John, Charles and Cornelia were married, the eldest children were married in Wilkinson County, Miss. After the war, Bythel, John , Charles and Cornelia (Mrs. Tomlinson) moved to Texas near Salado.

From this Capt. John Baird who settled first in Maine and later moved to North Carolina, and then to Tennessee, were descended James Birmingham who was the third son, William L., Archie and Joe. These must have settled in Wilkinson County, Miss., from there to Red River. My grandfather, James Baird died in Mississippi at the old homestead. His eldest daughter Anne married about 1839, J.S.Collins, and moved to Jackson, Miss. Mary Baldwin, the second daughter, married Zach Norwood, son of the patriarch and head of the old family of Norwoods near Clinton, La. Bythel Baird married Miss Mary Clinton from St. Helena Parish. John Baird married Miss Margaret Browne of Coushatta, La. Charles married Miss Clara Stamper of Mississippi. Haynes never married as he died young, at his sister Anne's home in Mississippi; he had come to Jackson to attend St. Andrew's College, but was taken with brain fever, died in spite of the treatment of our dear old family physician, Dr. Farrar. Cornelia the youngest daughter married J.E.Tomlinson, a nephew of Gen. T.Frank Collins.

Gen. Collins and Mary Haynes had five children, Melvira, Eudora, Alduro (killed during the Civil War), Clayora and Clarence Bythel, these are all dead. By a subsequent union with Miss Mary Norwood, two boys and a girl, Nemie, Mrs. Blankenship, of Dallas, Texas, the boys died in infancy. J.S.Collins's children were, Mitford, Mary, Halsey, Jeptha , Edwin, Maggie, Sallie, Tom Greene, Cadmus, Bythel, Nettie, Jesse, Alduro, Martha (died in infancy), also little twin boys.

Gen. Collins died at Lockhart, Texas, about I873 (obituary gives date Dec.6 I880, JDT). J.S.Collins died near Jackson,Miss.,I87I. His eldest daughter Mitford was married at Salado, Texas, to J.J.Browne in I872. They returned to Louisiana where their children were born, Annie and Guy Wesley. Earle Hamilton was born at the old Collins home in Mississippi."

The foregoing sketch of the Baird Family gives the traditions and facts known to the grand-children of James Birmingham Baird of Wilkinson Co.Miss. The statement that his mother Margaret Anne Birmingham's parents came from England to Maine the latter part of the Seventeenth century is evidently tradition. It is possible they could have been her grandparents, as she and her husband were probably born near I750. Capt. John Baird settled on Duck River, but not near Chattanooga as that city is quite a distance from this river. However the following Query and Answer appeared in "Dropped Stiches" Column of the Memphis Commercial many years ago, and gives James Birmingham Baird as being born in Maury Co.Tenn. (Duck River is in this County) about I795, instead of in North Carolina, and that his father was possibly James Baird (which is not correct, JDT). The Query is from T.C.B.,Natchez,Miss.; "Have you any genealogy of the Baird family of Maury Co.Tenn.? My grandfather James Birmingham Baird was born in Maury Co.about I795, and was in Coffee's command at New Orleans in I8I5, and I think his name was James". Answer- Maury County was created in I807. The Baird family of which we have record in the Genealogical History of McConnell, Martin, Barber, Wilson, Baird, McCall and Morris Families (Newton Whitfield McConnell) shows that many of these families emigrated to what is now Middle Tennessee, located in Bedford, Marshall, Giles, Maury and other counties. The originator of the family was John Baird of Lincoln County, N.C., whose will was probated in I784. In it he mentions his wife Frances, sons William, John, James, Adam, daughters, Jean (m. William Wallace), Anne Brown, Elean Witherspoon, Sarah Martin, Frances Gilliland and grandson, Hugh Houston. The descendants of Sarah Martin and of Adam Baird emigrated to Tennessee. Perhaps others did, but their record is not followed. Adam Baird was born I745, died I8II, married Mary Adams, their son , Robert Baird married his cousin Sarah Martin. He was born I777, died I87I, and was in the battle of King's Mountain. Their son Zenas Baird, settled at Cornesville, Marshall County, Tenn., and his wife was Jane Black, of the Lincoln County N.C. family of Blacks. Their son Wm.Emberry Baird's family, was living in Columbia,Tenn., Maury County, until a few years ago.".

The above would indicate that Capt. John Baird was son of John Baird whose will was probated in Lincoln Co.N.C., I784. (This county not far from Charlotte, N.C.). We find the family listed in Lincoln County, Census I790. (See Note below)

" I desire property to be kept together under management of Executor and Executrix. THE FOOTE FAMILY

VIRGINIA AND MISSISSIPPI.

This family is one of the most intereting of the well known families of Virginia, and has many connections with other noted families of that State. For a long time there was some confusion about the early generations, however this has been cleared up in most cases. The writer has had much correspondence with various people interested in the family records, and as it will serve as a proper introduction to the family and the problems involved, will quote some of these letters:

" Gulfport, Miss., Jan. I4 I930.

Mr. James D.Tillman,Jr.,
I924-34th. Ave.,
Meridian, Miss.
Dear Mr. Tillman:

Your letter received this morning, for which, I thank you. I hardly know how to begin, for I have so much interesting material of our various lines- that would be impossible to send you. However, should you ever run down to Gulfport, will be glad to let you look over what I have. You ask how the Dades come in ?, I came in touch with Miss Alice Trabue, who is much interested in genealogy; through her learned the large Will Book of Stafford County, had been recovered about three years ago. She sent for some copies of Massey wills, which show the connection with the descendants of Anne Foote. I am sorry that there was no large sheet of paper at hand, but am sending you a crude diagram which I think can be better understood. Please excuse it for I am no artist. From one who was well up on genealogy seemed to think that George Foote was the son of John son of Richard Foote; however, we descend from Richard Foote who first came over with Nicholas Hayward and Brent. Nicholas Hayward was an uncle of Richard Foote. My Aunt had a little picture of "Cedar Grove" a home given to his daughter Sarah, who married Rev. William Stuart. Rev. David Stuart m. I7I6, Jane Gibbons daughter of Wm. & Hannah Gibbons of Eng. Sir John Gibbons a member of Parliament was Hannah's brother. Children of Rev. D. Stuart & Jane Gibbons;
Rev. William Stuart m. Sarah Foote.
Dr. Gibbons Stuart.
John Stuart (a lawyer) m. Frances Alexander, a sister of Wm. Alexander of "Effingham".
Mary Stuart (Married Ist., Sigismund Massey, 2nd.,Horatio Dade, my line is connected with both of these marriages).
Sarah Stuart m. Thomas Fitzhugh of "Boscobel" Stafford Co. Va.

Anne Foote's descendants are of Alexander-Massey-Hooe-Ashton-Townshend-Stuart-Dade-Foote-etc. & through some of thse entitled to Daughters of American Revolution- Colonial Dames, & through the Dade line to the Magna Charta Barons. Do you find that hard to believe? I have it all & copies of various "Coats of Arms". You have asked for the descendants of Mary Stuart Foote who married John Whitney Massie, & those of Sigismunda Massey Foote. Before proceeding , am taking up that part of your letter stating that John Foote died in New Orleans, I have often heard my aunt Sigismunda Ashton (Massie) Burton, speak of cousin John Foote to whom her mother & family were devoted; he died at my grandmother's home, her name was Elizabeth Gibbons Ashton & married William John Ball Massie, nephew of John Whitney Massie.

John Whitney Massie b. Oct.20 I790, m. Mary Stuart Foote, Feb. I824 & had issue as follows:
Mary Ann Massie, married Inman Horner Payne.
William Foote Massie married Miss Smith.
Sigismunda Massie died young
Eliza Massie " "
Catherine Massie m. John Augustine Chilton
Sallie Alexander Massie m. George Washington.
Margaret Dangerfield m. George Thompson
Edwin Massie died young
Hooe Massie " "
Mary Ann Massie married Inman Horner Payne and had issue:
Albert Payne b. I846, died young
Mary Massie Payne, b. Apr.I I847, d. Oct.I90I, m. Col.M.B.Hardin.
George Howson Payne,b. Dec.I2 I850, married Nov.25 I875, Imogen Barrow Berry.
John Massie Payne, b. July 5 I852.
Inman Horner Payne, b. I854, married Elizabeth Pendleton.
Bernard Washington Payne, b. I859, m. Alice McDonald.
Julian Downman Payne, b. I86I, d. Feb. I907, m. Caroline Smith.
Thomas Alexander Payne, b. I863, d. I893.
Markham Brooks Payne, b. I865, d.I902.
Lena Robb Payne, b. I867, married Charles Crutchfield.
I have met most of this family Cousin Julian Payne lived in New Orleans & his widow & a married daughter still live there,& the other daughter married & lives between Washington & Alexandria Va.
Sigismunda Massey Foote married John Burdette Ashton & had 8 children, Horace Dade Ashton married Martha Thornton.
Elizabeth Gibbons Ashton married William John Ball Massie.
Sally F.Ashton married William Gibbons Stuart -the others died young.
Mrs. William Gibbons Stuart & family went to Missouri.
Elizabeth Gibbons Ashton & Wm. J.Ball Massie , my grandparents were married in Alexandria Va,in I835 & came to N.C., where both are buried. Horace Dade Ashton & family lived in Fredericksburg Va.,and he was a physician. Of course I could go on but expect this is all you want. The Ashtons are of English descent, from Lancashir. Charles Ashton (I) was in the colony as early as I654. Col. John Ashton was the son of Charles, and was one of the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of Westmoreland Co. Land Records V I665-77, page 324. It was here that a tutor instructed the children of Col. Ashton, also quite probably many of his nearest neighbors, so says Mr. Philip Alexander Bruce in his "Institutional History of Virginia in the I7th. Century". The Alexanders are of Scotch descent. John Alexander, b. I6-- , d. I677 was the first High Sheriff of Stafford Co. in I664 (Wm.& Mary Quart. VII p.245). He at one time owned what is known as "Arlington". The town of Alexandria was named for him. William Alexander 4th. in descent owned "Effingham". He was a member of the Committee of Safety & Soldier for Prince William Co. The Dades are of Engliash descent. Capt. Francis Dade- & a most noted family tracing back to the Magna Charta Barons.
The Hooe family came to Virginia from Wales. Col. Rice Hooe (I) was b. I599, and was a Member of the House of Burgesses from Shirley Hundred I632-3, also Burgess from Charles City Co. I644-7. I will state here the Committee would not accept this Rice Hooe (I) for the reason, they said there was not documents to prove this, for so many records have been destroyed, but did accept Lieut. Col. Rice Hooe (3), he was a "Leader among men of his day". He inherited large tracts of land and patented more, he was a Lieut. Col. of Militia & a member of the House of Burgesses.

The Townshends are of English descent, Capt. Richard Townshend, was born in England I596, arrived at Jamestown, Va. in the "Abigail" I620. Was a member of Council from York Co. Va. 1637.(Colonial Va. Register). He went back to Eng., on his return sailed from London in "Good Ship John". Was Justice of York Co.,I633, member of the Governor's Council, I639. Mary Stuart who first married Sigismund Massey, was the daughter of Rev. David Stuart, who came to Virginia I715, when an attempt was made to put James Stuart on the throne & failed. He returned to England, was ordained, & returning to Va., became the first Minister of St. Paul's Parish, King George Co. Va. I have a copy of a part of his Vestry book.

Every thing is very quiet, which reminds me the hour is late. I hope I have not wearied you.

Yours very truly,

Lucy Ashton Lewis.

This has not been read over, so please make allowances.

Dear Mr. Tillman:

I am glad to hear from you and hope I may have something that you do not already have.

I had to tear my Foote line down, as I found it in the magazines, and rebuild it inch by inch, which of course takes original court, Bible, and family records to do this.

3. John Carter from Va.
4. Wormley Carter m. Lucinda Washington Alexander,
5. John Stuart Alexander m. Catherine Foote.
6. Richard Foote, Pr. Wm. Co. m. Margaret Helm, not "A Washington" as often printed.
7. Richard Foote, m. Catherine Fossaker, (not "Lund" not Washington.)
8. Richard Foote.
9. Richard Foote m. Hester Hayward.
10. John Foote, England.

You no doubt have all that has been printed in the different magazines about these families.

I have been to Prince William twice and have all the Foote records there, made one trip to Fauquier Co., and there are a few deeds there that give most of the pedigree of the family. I copied them also the will of George Foote, and had the misfortune to loose my brief case before I got back to Missouri, so do not have the records of Fauquier.

It has been published several times that Richard No. 6 above "probably married A Washington"' also that No. 7 md. a Lund or a Washington. This mistake is probably excusable, because of the Washington kin. No. 6 Richard had two sisters married Washington, Lund & Laurence, and No. 7. Catherine Fossaker had two half sisters married Washington. Seeing this several times in print in the magazines, and the fact that my grandfather's mother was always written as Lucinda Washington Alexander (I think named from the fact that her two aunts married Washington and not from any real Washington strain), put me on the wrong trail for years, and I accumulated quite a lot of Washington data.

Mr. John B. Nicklin's research on these families has been very helpful in clearing up many points. For instance in one case, I had No. 7, m. Catherine,,, most accounts stated that the record of St. Paul's was illegible, and from old letter in the family we had set her down as Lund. But the Register , as Mr. Nicklin published it was Catherine Fossaker.

One writer states that what has been published about the Footes, is both meager and confusing, and that is the word for it, as the different Georges and Richards are mixed.

On your William Foote, I only have the published account, and as my own was not correct, do not know about it. I thought that he was son of George who was brother of No. 7 Richard, will at Warrenton Va. (which I copied but lost).

I see Mr. E.S. Lewis, St. Louis, traces descent from Richard Townshend, father of Robert; and their daughter Frances Townshend Dade, Withers, Hooe, daughter Sarah Withers, Elizabeth Lund.

Have you seen the article "Withers" Va. Mag. 5 p. 278, John Withers Gent, Stafford Co., also have a ref. Va. Mag. 6, 309-425, from this and other records, I gather that Frances was the wife of John Withers only a short time. In his will he names his daughter "Sarah Withers" and made her exr. of his will, dated Aug. 29 I698, in I699, a deed in Stafford from Frances Withers, relict of John Withers now about to marry Rice Hooe, conveying negroes and other personal property to her sons Robert, Francis and Cadwalder Dade. In Feb. I699-I700 , a deed from Rice Hooe (who married Frances relict of John Withers) and Frances his wife releasing to Capt. Richard Fossaker, (who was Burgess of Stafford I703) who married the daughter and Executor of the said Capt. John Withers, all claims he might have as marrying the relict of Capt. John Withers.

By deeds dated July I2 I727, Sarah Withers daughter of John Withers had married Christopher Conway. So it appears that Sarah Withers m.

1st. Richard Fossaker, about I699 ---
2nd. Thomas Lund,
3rd. Christopher Conway ---

--- Katherine Fossaker m. Richard Foote, Oct. 6 I726.
Sarah Lund m. Lawrence Washington
Elizabeth Lund m. Townshend Washington, Dec. 22 I726.

I had all of this from an old letter written many years ago by a descendant of Townshend Washington, except that he called Katherine "Lund".

Francis Dade, 1st. husband of Frances Townshend will dated Sept. I3 I694, Inventory June 8 I697.

If those dates are any way near correct it would leave little time for Frances to have been Mrs. John Withers. And the daughter Sarah was old enough to be executor of her father's will, also to get married to Richard Fossaker---- so it may be that our published dates are wrong again.

My sister, who is a member of every patriotic organization, made out papers for Colonial Dames on Richard Fossaker and Capt. John Withers on this line and had them turned down for lack of proof. It may be that she made them too brief and did not give the proof.

Do you have the first wife of Capt. John Withers? who must have been the mother of his daughter Sarah, if our records are correct.

Was your Hamilton Family from Virginia, and did you ever hear of John Tayloe Hamilton, Richmond & Orange Co. Virginia ? I have an ancestor Gilbert Hamilton, d. in Richmond Co. Va. I767 , wife Anne Beale Hamilton, children were John Tayloe Hamilton, Robert Hamilton, Ann Hamilton m. Thomas Edwards, Janet Hamilton m. John Carter of Sudley Pr. Wm. Co. Va., and Effie Hamilton. I have many of the descendants but can not get back of Gilbert Hamilton. I have an idea that they were a Maryland family, many Gilberts in Md. Many Virginia Hamiltons come from the Augusta Co. Family.
(My sister tells me that Colonial Dames Genealogist refused her papers because she did not have proof that Catherine Fossaker was daughter of Richard Fossaker, do you have any proof of this ?).

Capt. John Withers & Richard Fossaker were both Members of the House of Burgesses. Do you know of any Colonial Record of any of the Richard Footes? No 6. Richard on my line, made his will in Pr. Wm. Co. Va. I775, proved I779. I have always thought that he must have been in the Revolutionary War, but can find no record of any kind. He left wife Margaret, who was the daughter of Capt. Lynaugh Helm, and 4 children, Catherine, m. John Stuart Alexander, probably too young for the Revolution.

William Hayward Foote was adopted by his aunt Mrs. Lund Washington of Hayfield, who made him her heir. His and her will as well as that of Lund Washington are on file at Fairfax. Richard Foote , and Elizabeth Foote I have no account of this Richard and Elizabeth, but think that Richard went to Miss. Margaret Helm Foote, m. 2nd John Thornton Fitzhugh, Pr. Wm. Co. Va.

Enclosed find sheet giving some records we have published, we are now working on a book of Old Family Bible records, and have accumulated many very interesting ones. I am interested in your Old Taylor Bible. Has it been published?

Will be glad to hear from you any time, on these families.

Very truly yours,

Rella B. Evans,

Another letter dated Dec. 16 1934, Columbia, Mo.

Dear Mr. Tillman:

Since writing you before I have recovered some of the lost records from Fauquir Co., that I wrote you about; a cousin in Philadelphia, and I have corresponded for several years about our Carter kin in Virginia. He often makes trips down in that country, and this fall was in Washington and he and another Foote descendant made out a chart, which I believe is fairly correct. I have checked it up with data that I have from the Magazines also the Court records of Pr. Wm. Co. that I copied myself, and from extracts of Fauquier records sent by the Clerk.

The trouble with Foote family data is that various writers have confused the generations of the 2 Georges and the various and numerous Richards. Will sketch off the family as I have it.

John Foote, Gentleman, of Cornwall England.
Richard Foote, b. Cornwall Eng. Aug. 10 1632, m. 1657 Hester Hayward, came to America temporarily in 1655, they had 14 children.
Richard Foote, b. 1666, d. 1725, came to America, was Justice of Stafford, established Cedar Grove, bought land 1689. (St. Paul's Parish register give Elizabeth Foote d. 1725, must have been wife of this Richard)
His children were;

1. Richard Foote, m. Catherine Fossaker.
2. Elizabeth Foote.

4. John Foote, d. unmarried.

William Hayward Foote was the son of Richard Foote & Margaret Helm, and he was a Ist cousin of Gov. & Senator Henry Stuart Foote of Miss.
William Hayward Foote was adopted by his aunt Elizabeth Foote who married Lund Washington, they had no children, he inherited "Hayfield" and all of her estate, I have wills of all three copied at Fairfax Va.
William Hayward Foote had no children, "he m. late in life, I do not know whom but have old letters from her signed "M.M.", left his estate to his wife, she lived many years, and most of the estate was squandered by her secretary".
He was gr.uncle to my grandfather Carter, and many letters referred to "Uncle Hayward", and my grandfather and his brothers received a small legacy when Mr. Foote died.

9. Richard. IO. Alexander. II. Frederick. I2. Edwin.

You have all this as I have.

In the Va. Hist.Mag. No.30, p. 393.
Was published the Bible records of one RICHARD FOOTE, no name is given for the person who sent it. I have been wondering who this Richard Foote was, and can not place him unless he was the Richard, brother of my gr.gr.grandmother Catherine Foote Alexander, and brother of William Hayward Foote. We have no family record of the bro. Richard nor of the sister Elizabeth Foote. You may have this record;

Richard Foote m. Helen Gibbons Stuart, dau. of Rev. Wm. Stuart, I803, Richard Foote , m. Mrs. Lucy Alexander , dau. of Col. John Talliferio, King George Co., I8I6.
Richard Foote m. Eliza M. Garrard dau. of Henry Garrard of Ky. I820.
Richard Foote m. Ann Stewart, dau. of W.P. Stewart, King George Co. I826.

Extracts from Bible.

Hayward Foote was b. June I4 I8II, Pr. Wm. Co. Va., d. at his residence Cayuga, Hinds Co. Miss., Oct. I6 I879. He was educated at Warrenton , in the State of his birth. He moved to Miss., in the autumn of I838, locating in Rankin Co. Miss., where he was employed for some years as a teacher in Centenary College.
Hayward Foote's first wife was Sarah Jane Belcher, formerly Fisher, b. Ky.
If you do not have this record can copy it from the magazine for you.
Dont you think that this is the Hayward Foote that Dr. Oscar Hamilton met in Miss.?
I am sure that Wm. Hayward Foote of Hayfield never lived in Miss.
These names and dates seem to fit in as the brother of Wm. Hayward and Catherine Foote Alexander, but I never heard of Catherine Foote marrying again after her husband John Stuart Alexander, (son of Wm. Alexander of Effingham House) died in I800, however she was a young woman with three children. There were so many Alexander- Dade marriages that I may have read right over the marriage many times and not recognized her as Catherine Foote Alexander.
Have you read the article in Tyler's Quarterly Magazine Vol. 5 , p. I64, about Brent Town, I think it was taken from Fairfax Harrison's Old Pr. William Co., and is largely about the Foote's and their Kin. ?
Also the very interesting article in Va. Mag. 33, p. I54, I925, on Elizabeth Washington of Hayfield, by Wm. Buckner McGroarty. He presumes as other writers have done, that the different Foote wives were Washingtons, (none of them were).

Sincerely yours,
Rella B. Evans.

The Virginia Magazine (Vol.I, I894,p.274, Vol.VI, p. 63, Vol.7, pp.73 and 202, Vol.IX, p. 333) gives some valuable data on the Foote Family, which is of Old Cornwall stock, some of whom settled in Kent County, England. The Coat of Arms given; Vert, a chevron between three Martletts, Argent, Crest, a Lion's head erased, motto "Pendentium".

We are able to determine from the foregoing records and other sources, an accurate history of the Foote family after coming to Virginia. However, owing to lack of data, there is no information on many branches, and on others only brief items. We begin the record as follows:

I. John Foote, Gentleman, of Cornwall, England. He was of an old Cornish family, but no data has been furnished on the family other than that he was the father of:

Letter from John W. Massie, addressed to Mrs. Ann Taylor, Vicksburg, Miss. who was Anne Foote and a sister of his wife Mary Stuart Foote.

Alexandria, I8 Octo. I839.

Dear Sister:

Your kind letter to Mary was duly received and I hope this may find you safe at home & in good health. We have nothing new here since you left, except the suspension of our Banks which makes much talk & very much deranges our commercial matters. Sister Stuart & Frederick Foote is up at our house & all are well. We have sent Mary Ann to school in Washington to a Mrs. Breschard & she is much pleased with the School.
We have received a letter from Felix since his arrival at colledge & he is well & was getting in good spirits, he says he felt rather low spirited for a while after he got back. You will please make my best respects to the Judge & tell him I have shipped his 5 barrels of fish & two boxes to day on the Brig Isaac Franklin to care of Ricker & Hadley, New Orleans & and that the Brig will sail about 25th. I would enlarge my letter, but do not feel well to day. Mary and the children join me in love to you all. I know you will excuse me for writing short letters, as I am not as able now as I have been to do so. We shall be much gratified to have a letter from you on you arrival at home.

I am very affectionately

A letter from her mother, Mrs. John Moore Taylor (nee Anne Foote) to her dau. Sigismunda Mary Taylor, whom she was entering in Mrs. Moore's School in Alexandria, Va., and who was then on a visit to relatives at Waverly, Prince William Co. Alexandria, Sept.6 1843.

" My beloved daughter;

We have just completed your purchases, and if your Aunt does not come down this evening, I shall send up a parcel for you tomorrow. I can only command half a sheet of paper, a very bad pen and very little ink, so that my communication must at this time be very limited. I cannot say what my feelings are my beloved child , at this our first separation (for any length of time), none but a mother can understand them. I trust that now that we are apart you will remember my many admonitions, and that that tenderness which I am persuaded you do feel for your parents will give them more weight than may have appeared to have while I was with you. You cannot conceive how tenderly our hearts yearn over you or how much anxiety your welfare costs us. Let me entreat you to cultivate more gentleness of feeling and manner, and study to improve yourself in every way, in order to remedy the many disadvantages under which you have labored all your life, the chief of which has been my deafness, which has prevented my knowing of your errors till they were habits which injure you in the estimation of persons who do not know how you have been situated. I trust your own good sense will enable now (with the assistance of Him "who giveth liberally and upbraideth not") to watch over yourself and correct your faults. Do not forget you are a professed follower of Him who was "meek and lowly in heart".

I send you two frocks, one I think pretty, I doubt you will like the other, but there was so much red, which I know you dislike, that I had but little choice. I only got two pair of cotton stockings, as I could not find such as your Aunt spoke of neither could I get any silk that I liked. So you will have to trouble your Aunt to get them. Mrs. Hall has your bonnet, aunt Sukey your sheets and counterpane, and Mrs. Pierce will take your linen. Your father has got a bedstead, cotton mattress and bolster, also a very large wardrobe for you, and five blankets so you will be warm enough. I shall leave a memorandum of where your things are with William. I met him in crossing the street, which is all I've seen of the young gentleman. He knew I was here, almost as soon as I arrived last night, he has promised to call to-night. I met Dr. Stuart this morning, he said he was just about to get off. I send some candy which you will share with the household. Give my love to all, also to your Aunt Stuart, and the girls at Snowhill, they were very attentive and kind to me. We are staying at Mrs. Yeaton's, a very poor place, she is quite sick today with a cold, and is upon the eve of moving. She says there is no sickness of any account in town, and none at all in this neighborhood. Love to your Uncle and the children, to your dear Aunt and the girls, do mind what she says to you, and do not be wild and talk too much. May the Lord bless you my dear child, prays your own, Mother.

Your father sends love to you.

Another letter to her daughter from Clinton, Miss. Dec.9 1843.

My beloved daughter;

Yours of the 2Ist. of Nov., to your father, came to hand yesterday and tho very far from well, I determined to answer it. I have not written to you so often lately as I wished, having been more closely and laboriously employed since my return, than I ever remember to have been before for the same length of time. I do not say this by way of complaint but as a reason why I have not written since Col Erwin left. Both your father and brother have written since, and of course you were not neglected, tho I often felt as if I desired to write you myself. I am much gratified my beloved child at your punctuality in writing, yet there are in your letters many things which are far from satisfactory to me, and some that really distress me very much. To begin with the least, I do not like the style of your letters, they are so matter of fact that it would seem as if yu were impelled more by duty than inclination to write, then it is very evident that you do not have your dictionary by you, or do not refer to it. I hope when you wrote your cousin N. Long, that you attended to your orthography. I assure you she is very well informed, as well as a very particular lady, and I should be very sorry if you made an unfavorable impression on her. I think also the expressions you often use are not those best calculated to convey your ideas, for instance you say you "want some hard music", hard music! what does that convey to the mind, to me it would imply something harsh, dissonant, in fact a complete contradiction in terms. Suppose you spoke of a piece of music which was easy to learn, would you call it a soft piece of music ? One would be just as correct as the other. You ought to pay attention to such, if you wish to improve, which I do hope you do. A formal studied style, either in conversation or writing is disagreeable, but we should always select those expressions which will best convey our ideas, and clothe them agreeably or we cannot expect our society to be sought by intelligent well informed persons. Your father bids me tell you "to get some hard music". That was all the comment which he made. but I know what he thought by the tone of his voice. He wishes you to get music or anything which will conduce to your improvement, which is the object we both have most at heart, he wrote to you about the guitar himself. I suppose you have his letter by this time. I am much gratified that you have commenced the study of French, I have always regretted my ignorance of that language. Mrs. Moore's note afforded us much satisfaction, and I intend as soon as I can command so much time to do myself the pleasure of writing to her , pray make my respects to her, and give my love to her daughters, and tell her I dearly love young people. Your father has written to Mr. Bell to remit $100 to your Aunt for your use, money will be supplied as it is needed. Your continued and reiterated desire to return, distresses me my child more than I can express, inasmuch as I think it argues in the first place, a want of affection for your parents in seeking to thwart what they conceive your best interests, and manifests a childish disregard of the advantages offered you, which I did not expect from you. I fear you are making yourself very rediculous. When I received your letter saying that I need not be surprised to see you return with Col. Erwin, when I read that part I became sick and almost blind, the letter fell in my lap, and I almost fainted. When I recovered my recollection, I thought to myself, if she does come it will nearly kill me. Why not dismiss all such thoughts , and give yourself to the cultivation of those faculties which the Supreme Being has bestowed upon you, the due improvement, and for which he will hold you responsible. Why every letter you write my dear proves how incompetent you are, to sustain yourself in society with any credit. I shall not stay more than three or four weeks in New Orleans, and shall then go to the plantation, there you would not enjoy any advantage.. I hope I shall hear no more of your returning. We leave Miss. the Ist. of next month. Your parcel by Col. Erwin has just arrived, get another Mousline, if you want it my love, I wish you to dress genteenly. Your brother sends love. Your father send love also and was pleased with the first book you sent him, do not spend your little stock in buying books for us, we thak you for the attention, but I have all Miss Bremer's works, and if I had not, have not had a moment to read any thing in the week but my Bible, since my return, and now all the packing is to do. I have no letter paper and felt so unwell when I began that I did not think I should write so much, so cut my paper, and now I wish it back. Your brother is studying very hard and never goes any where. Gen. Foote has moved within a mile and a half of Jackson. Your father was there yesterday, he told me the Gen. said he was getting more business than he ever did, Jane says you must write her. Jane Ervin has been staying at brother Ford's for the last three weeks, I have not seen her. This is the only fair day we have had in nearly a month, I never saw so much rain in the same space of time. Had you not better learn to do worsted work, if you have time, I should much prize a bag or pair of slippers worked by my dear daughter. Give my love to your dear Aunt and family, cousin Sally also, tell her a letter from her hand would be very acceptable. Also to Mary Stuart, if she is still there, tell her I love her very much. Love to Kate, tell her I thank her for her letters. I have twenty things yet to say to my dear child, farewell, may the Lord bless and save you is the almost hourly prayer, of your own

Mother.

One thing I must not omit, you call yourself a Christian, can you pray to be forgiven, and not forgive those you consider enemies?
After you receive this direct to New Orleans.

Another letter dated
New Orleans, Feb. I3 I844.

My beloved daughter;

Owing to indisposition, I have suffered a longer time to elapse than usual without writing to you, but some one or other of the family have done so at least every two weeks, so that I cannot account for the circumstance of your not having received a letter for five weeks. I avail myself of the opportunity of writing by your uncle Frederic (Foote, JDT) tho my hand is so unsteady this morning that I can scarce trace a legible word. How did it happen that you never mentioned that your uncle had come south, and you never said a word of the death of poor Mrs. Brent? The three last letters received from you have distressed me more than I can find words to express. That to your brother made me really ill, the unfeminine indelicate opinons which you so openly avow, make me tremble for you and blush to think that they should have proceeded from the pen of a daughter of mine, and one too so young. What my poor misguided wilful daughter avail all your professions of love and duty to your parents, when you are madly pursuing a course which you know gives them unhappiness, because they feel assured it must result in misery you. Are we to lose our only daughter by her own mad folly? In the whole course of my observation and experience I have never known anything but lasting unhappiness to result from such conduct. I will not affect to misunderstand your too pointed allusions. I would have written to you some days ago, but felt completely unhinged both in mind and body and almost heart broken, both sleep and appetite fail me. Oh! who would wish to be a mother, after bearing a child with agony unspeakable, rearing it through peevish infancy and wayward childhood, to see it when of an age to feel its obligations to its parents, madly flying in the face of all admonition, all precepts moral and divine, braving parental authority, audaciously defying the opinions of the world, and making its own peurile will its rule of action. I scarce know what I write, my mind has been so tossed for days, that I have thought I should go deranged, compelled to assume composure, and affect spirits which I do not feel. I once determined that I would not write you again, but thought I would make one more appeal to your feelings to try if a sense of duty or filial love, could be aroused within you; if not , to give you up to your own devices, and let you reap their bitter bitter fruit. Can it be possible that you are engaged in a correspondence with that "other person" I am led to infer that you are from your last letter, and what the mighty inducement to study can be to which you allude, I cannot divine, when the anxiously expressed wish of your parents did not avail, to induce you to devote yourself to the cultivation of your mind. My still dearly and tenderly beloved child, it grieves me much to write to you as I have done, you know that I have care-avoided all allusions to this distressing topic with a hope, that it might be forgotten by us all, but your own revival of it leaves me no alternative. I can only pray that our Heavenly Father may grant you grace to enable you to see the precipice on which you stand, and strength to shun it. Your dear father has not yet arrived, I almost dread to see him, for I know that his distress will fall but little short of mine. I expect him in a few days and then I shall hasten to hide my grief and sorrow in Arkansas. Your brother I expect will remain here in some French family to prosecute the study of that language. All are well and send love to you, if your uncle (Frederic Foote, who lived in Prince Wm. Co. Va. JDT) can carry it will send you a spring dress. May the Lord bless and save you my own beloved child, prays your affectionate

Mother.

Present my kind regards to Mrs. and Miss Moore, also to Miss Williams.

The following two letters were written prior to the above.

New Orleans January 8 1844.

My dearly beloved child;

I arrived here the 6th and found your letter of the 24th awaiting me, and truly I was grieved to find that (without intending it in the least) I had so deeply grieved the heart of my beloved child. Indeed my love, I would not for any thing that could be offered me, distress you. I must say that you do not sufficiently distinuish between reproof and admonition, I did not I assure you design to reprove , but admonish you of errors, not faults, which I thought only required a little pains to correct, and which if I had loved you less, and been indifferent to your improvement I should have passed over in silence. I am truly sorry that you viewed it in the light of a scolding. I did not intend it as such, and cannot now, remember anything in my letter which could be construed in that light when I said that your letters were too matter of fact, I only meant that I would like better to hear of what you were doing and who you associated with etc., than complaints of your absence from home. Believe me my dearest this separation is more painful to me than it can possibly be to you, and nothing but the hope of its resulting in great and lasting benefit to you could reconcile me to it, and if I have forborn speaking of my regret before , it was that I might not increase yours. I have and do miss you very much, but I know that you ought to have been at school years ago, and have often condemned my own selfishness in keeping you with me so long to your detriment. Mrs. Moore's report report gratified me more than I can express, pray present my respects to her, and my kind regards to her daughter, and tell her I thank her for her kind note, and thanks to both of them for all their kindness to my beloved child, also my compliments to your roommate. I trust that your feelings will be soothed my love, I again assure you that I did not intend to wound you, so will dismiss the subject and try if I can find some news for you, tho truly it is but little that I know, having staid at home almost entirely after my return from Virginia. Cornelia Nicholson was married to Mr. Ford on New Year's day, I was told they were to have a very large party but they left us out so I cannot tell you much about it. She was dressed in black silk velvet, and her attendants Ann Ford and Jane Irvin in white skirts and black velvet bodies, the two girls called to see me Saturday before, I was sick in bed. I think Jane very much improved in every respect. I had a large bunch of white hyacinths on the mantle piece (which Mrs. Erwin had sent me), they eagerly begged them to dress their. The marriage was to have taken place sooner but when Mrs.N. came to this place in November to get the wedding clothes she found Wm. at the point of death, after a severe illness she got him home, and the marriage took place as soon as he was able to perform the ceremony. There was so much rain that the road in Hinds had become impassible for carriages so that I did not see Mrs. Roberts, but she wrote me, and desired her love to you Ann F. and Jane Irwin also sent love to you. After the most fatiguing time I ever had we got off the morning of the 3rd. your dear father accompanied us to Vicksburg, and returned as the servants, stock etc. was still there. I never parted from him with more reluctance, but as the Supreme and Chancery Courts were both in session he could not leave, and I could not stay for Mr. Todd the owner of the place was moving into the house before we left. I gave Lucy a charge about your cat, and she will take it with her, she will not neglect any thing of yours you may be sure. When I got to Vicksburg, I went immediately on board the boat, a splendid new one the Sultana, literally a floating palace. We stopped very often to take in freight etc., yet reached here at 8 o'clock the night of the 6th., she is the swiftest and most splendid boat that has yet been built, and plies weekly between this place and Vicksburg. Wehad a very pleasant company, mostly from Madison, Methodists and kindred of Frances Kearney's, Andrew's, Thomas's etc. It has been raining ever since I got here when it clears off F. means to go to see them. There was a lovely girl got on board at Rodney, a Miss Stuart, with whom I fell quite in love, and there was a shoal of young girls on board coming down to school in convents. I found your uncle Gilbert here suffering from a severe affection of the lungs unable to leave the house, anxious to go to Cuba, but the old cry want of funds, prevents him. Frances is far from well, tho not in any danger. Gil is getting over the affection of his shoulder, and still remembers cousin Gissy and the poney. Ida and Ella tho much grown are in other respects the same. Mr. Bell is well. To our great surprise Robert Grinnan got on the boat about 30 miles above here , seemed very glad to see us and is I think much improved. I was gratified my love at the desire you manifest for improvement, but you must not forget to look to the highest source for aid, I hope you attend to your religious , tho it is our duty to prepare ourselves for the duties of life we should never lose sight of the uncertainty of its duration, and a suitable preparation for a more durable state of existance should always be a matter of primary importance. All here join in love to you. I hope to hear very often from you and shall write often to you. As soon as the rain is over, I shall get Fe. to look out Elizabeth Massier (?). Give my very best love to my dear sister and her family and all her family, if Sally A is still there my love to her. I hear that dear cousin Smith is gone, she will be greatly missed, but she has long had the wedding garment on, waiting for a summons to the marriage supper of the Lamb, that we may all be ready to meet her there is my anxious prayer. Farewell my beloved child, may the good Lord inspire with desires for improvement both temporal & spiritual and grant you assisting grace to fulfil those desires, is the prayer of your own

Mother.

Ella is standing by and says give my good love to Cousin.

Letter from Judge John Moore Taylor to his daughter Miss Sigismunda M. Taylor, at Mrs. Moore's School, Alexandria, District of Columbia.

Cypress Level, Arkansas, 20 Jan. I844.

My beloved Daughter;

I take advantage of an unoccupied hour, again to write to you, which I should have done much oftener, had it not been for the pressure of business which has given almost constant employment to both my mind and body since my return from Virginia, and my knowing that you were hearing frequently from us all through your Mother and brother. They have been for two weeks in New Orleans, I have not yet received a letter from either of them, but that has been caused by my having been here and their letters have been addressed to Vicksburg. I am trying to have the house put in something better order and the yard and garden somewhat improved before your dear Mother comes up, so as to make her situation more pleas- and than it would be if she were here now, and I expect in three or four weeks to go down myself, and after remaining about a week in the City, that we shall return here together. The servants here are generally with the exception of Nancy whose health has been bad the whole winter. She appears to suffer much from rheumatism, and the season has been very unfavorable to persons afflicted with that complaint, as there has been more cloudy and wet weather than I ever experienced in the same time before. The last four days have been the most pleasant we have been favored with for some time, but yesterday afternoon it again clouded up and soon after night commenced raining, and rained unceasingly until breakfast time this morning, and still continues quite warm and very cloudy. I have a piece of bad news to com- municate to you, which I regret very much, I had your cat brought up here very safely, and she had become quite domesticated. Two days ago I was writing and she was sleeping on a chair by my side, suddenly she sprang from the chair and I supposed had seen a mouse, but as she continued to make an uncommon noise, my attention was drawn to her, when I found she was in a violent convulsive fit. The fit continued for near an hour, and after a sho- rt cessation, it returned though not so violent, and one fit continued rap- idly to succeed another until soon after sun rise the next day when she died. I never regretted anything of the kind so much, principally because she was yours, but she was so affectionate I was really fond of her, besid- es the predilection I should feel for that which belonged to my beloved Sigismund. How does my dear Daughter do? I have been very much gratified by the very favorable reports which Mrs. Moore has made of your deportment and progress. Col. Irwin told you had evidently improved both in manners and appearance. I know you have capacity to be anything you choose to be, but to learn, my dear Sigismund, we must be aware of our deficiences, and that improvement is necessary. I am greatly anxious that you should be amiable and accomplished, but above all deeply pious. I entertain no doubt but that the doctrines of our denomination are the purest and most scrip- tural of any other whatever. It might be relied that any other person would say the same of his or her own church. Let this be admitted, yet I think my opinion should be entitled to more weight than those of other per- sons of only equal capacity. I was not brought up a Methodist, nor brought to serious reflection through their instrumentality , on the contrary my early prepossessions wre decidely against them, and I became one after ma- ture deliberation and comparing their doctrines with the Gospel. I hope my dear Daughter will continue unshaken in her attachment to the doctrines and discipline of her church, and that she will appreciate their conformity to the Scriptures by a full experience of the love of God constantly shed abroad in her heart. May He fill her bosom with His peaceful and abiding presence sincerely and ardently prays her

Affectionate Father, J.M.Taylor.

Letter addressed to Miss Sigismund M. Taylor, at Mrs. Moore's School, Alexandria, District of Columbia.

Vicksburg, I7th. May I844.

My dear Sigismund;

Your letter of the 28th. April was received two days ago, and though short, and by no means all we could have wished, it certainly has afforded us gratification. You will have received my last letter some-time before this reaches you, in which, while I still declared my disapproba-tion, I withdrew my prohibition of your proposed union. Your letter will not cause me to change any thing contained in my last, I will only say that while your Mother and myself will still faithfully act in accordance to what was in my letter declared if you require it, yet we would greatly prefer the cou-rse you propose, that is, that this matter should not be consummated for a year or eighteen months to come. We will also, on this condition, consent to your continuing your correspondence with him. I saw and conversed with Dr. H. a few days ago, and plainly told him my objections to this match, but informed him at the same time that as you had accused your Mother and myself with the intention of deceiving you, while I could never approve of the marr-iage, yet I should no longer forbid it. You have strange ideas about the abandoment of what you call youthful follies. It is no satisfactory proof they will never be resumed, when they have only been given up for about eighteen months. We have had an instance in our town of too fearful a nature for me ever to be willing to see a child, for whose happiness I -----(illeg-ible) unite her destiny to that of a man who has been intemperate, because he has abstained from the habit for some one or two years. The instance I allude to as presenting itself to my mind now, is that of Judge Guion a man of high standing and uncommon intellect, who, I have no doubt with the full belief that his reform was permanent, wooed and won an excellent woman, and by relapsing into a course of dissipation, must have embittered her life and probably hastened her death. But I forbear, all I ask of you is to take time, reflect maturely, remember upon the result is to depend :- all prob-ability, your happiness or misery here, possibly your destiny hereafter, and may He who counts the hairs or our heads guide you in the way most calculated for your good. I wish you to reply to this soon after receiving it, and let me know whether you wish to remain another year in Alexandria or to return home after the termina of the present session of your school. You need not expect us in Virginia. Your Mother's health does not materially improve, she is still very feeble, unable to sit up for any length of time without great fatigue, and does not leave her room. Her mind has been too much agitated, for her body to strengthen, she is reduced almost to a skeleton. I fear she will be too feeble to travel far, though I hope she will get better and stron-ger and ultimately recover. Besides, my means for travelling will not enable me to take such a journey. My crop of last year was not half an average one, and that of this year now growing, is very unpromising, having been very greatly injured by cut worms. It would afford us great pleasure to see you, but we had much rather hear that you were improving in the qualifications necessary for happiness and usefulness, than see you wasting your time in idleness. Your Mother and Father both join in daily petitions for the blessings of Heaven to be granted to our beloved Daughter, especially those calculated to enrich her heart with the calming and peaceful religion of Him who said "My peace I give unto you". May His peace rest upon and accompany our dear child through all of the changing scenes of this uncertain world, and His grace bring her at last to eternal life, is the daily and ardent prayer of

Her affectionate, Parents.

You put it upon the condition of our consent in I2 or I8 months, your correspondence to be continued in the mean time. Let it so be understood.

Letter from her father John M. Taylor addressed to Miss Sigismunda M. Taylor at Mrs. Moore's School, Alexandria, District of Columbia.

Vicksburg 13 June 1844.

My dear Sigismund:

I shall write to you hereafter without reference to any past transactions. I have given you my word, by that I shall abide, you do not act with my approbation in marrying Dr. Hamilton, but as you have accused me of an intention to deceive you, I withdraw my prohibition. I am now done with the subject, and do not expect again to recur to it in any letter I may write to you. Contrary to the expectations of all of her friends three weeks ago, your mother is much better, and was able to sit this morning in an arm chair for upwards an hour. Without some reverse, I hope we shall be able to leave for the plantation on the 24 this month. She has received great and kind attention from her acquaintances , several having insisted on her going to their homes and remaining with them until she leaves here. Nothing has occurred here since I wrote you, that I remember of, in which you would feel any interest. The Mississippi is higher than it has been for sixteen years. many plantations are wholly inundated, and there must be a great deal of distress. When I heard from my overseer last, the levee still afforded a protection in front, though the water was encroaching on my back lands and was injuring my corn to some extent. Since that time the river has continued to rise and I doubt not a considerable part of my corn crop will be destroyed, and my cotton much injured. Should my levee give way I should be compelled to sell part of my property, as that would destroy my cotton crop, without which I can not meet my engagements. The members of our church, have seen with great regret the proceedings of the General Conference. Judging from the action of that body, I can not doubt but that the ministers of our church in the North are greatly to blame for the excitement which exists on the subject of slavery. Instead of endeavoring to to allay, they fan the flame, and I am utterly surprised to find the delegates from the Baltimore Conference to the General Conference to be leading them in all these troubles. I believe were the ministers to make true representations to their flocks on the subject, all differences would soon be at an end. Instead of this, ignorant themselves of much about which they speak, they at least distort the truth, and produce a high state of feeling about a matter which those people have, in truth, no right to intermeddle and know nothing.
I sincerely pray that the union of the Church may be preserved, but I could not agree to its preservation, if the South, to effect it, have to yield itself up bound hand and foot, to the North. It is utterly astonishing to me that any part of Virginia should tolerate men who sustain opinions so perfectly at war with peace and happiness of the people, as are those which have been urged by the delegates from Baltimore at New York. However, amidst all these jarring elements, my dear Daughter, let us keep our eyes upon the mark, and press forward for the prize of our high calling through our Lord Jesus Christ. While others who by their conduct, indeed their language too, say stand aside we are better than you, let it be our part to return good for evil, live in the faithful and zealous discharge of our Christian and every other duty, and look to God for help in our feebleness. How low is the Christian character generally, how little godliness, how little self denial, is found among professors. Is it at all wonderful that a cold formalist should appeal to a priesthood regularly descended from the Apostles, to immersion, to the Sacraments, as something else which is the subject of sense for his evidence of justification and sanctification in the sight of God. Alas, these will not do- God looks not upon the outward appearance but to the heart. Let us then give him our affections, let us believe his whole truth, and never be satisfied unless we feel his grace abounding within us, unless we feel his Spiritual presence in our hearts, may he bless you with his sanctifying grace and fit you for his glory. Where is your brother and what is he doing? He has forgotten his parents, at least he never writes to us. Direct your answer to Columbia Arkansas, as I hope we shall be there before it can be received. Did your mother know I was writing to you, she would join in message of love. May the Lord bless & save you, sincerely prays

Your affectionate Father.

Miss Helen Foote died a few weeks ago.

Sigismunda Mary Taylor married Dr. Oscar Hamilton, Nov. IO I844.
This letter from her father father, addressed to Mrs. Sigismunda M. Hamilton, Clinton, Miss.

East Pascagoula, 30th. June I846.

My Beloved Daughter;

Your letter to your Mother of the 8th. of June was received on the I3th. On the night of the I5th., Felix and Medora set out for Virginia, and on the I7th., your mother and I left for New Orleans, her strength seemed to improve somewhat the first day, but on the next she was attacked with chill and fever, and I never saw her lose flesh and strength so fast as she did for several days. At New Orleans I called in a physician who soon arrested the chills and fevers but left her very weak, and the day after her arrival here they returned, and she is very much prostated by them. Night before last and yesterday I gave her two large doses of Quinine and yesterday she had no chill, but was perfectly deaf, today the chill again appeared. I think if we can conquer the chills and fevers her health will improve, at least I hope so. She was greatly disappointed at your not accompanying me home when I returned from Clinton. She had calculated on it almost with certainty and was very muched distressed at my returning without you. I felt very much disposed to insist on you going with me, but saw that Doctor Hamilton could not leave home to go with you, and knew not how long I might be detained, nor indeed whether I should leave for the up country or lower, and could not think of your returning from my house by yourself. I hope the Lord will preserve us all to get back, keep you, the Doctor and little girl in safety, and that we can then meet and spend some time together. Everything about us, however, my dear Daughter should teach us to feel our dependence upon the great I Am more and more, should impress upon us the uncertainty and transient nature of all earthly things, and cause us to look with a more constant and single trust to the great Redeemer of men, to make a preparation for Heaven and the enjoyment of the religion of the Gospel, the one great end and aim of our existence. May the Lord grant to you and your husband abundant grace to lead you into all the truth. May he fit you for the important business of bringing up your dear child in his nurture and admonition. I wrote you a few days ago to send our servant, barouche and horses to the Doctors, intending to request the Doctor to send them to wherever we may want them. We are uncertain yet where we will remain and hope it will not be inconvenient to Doctor Hamilton for them to remain there until he hears from me on the subject, in the meantime, after giving a pass to Lewis to go to Jackson- to remain about two days (he says he has a wife there) put him in your house to act as a house servant, and use the carriage and horses whenever you wish to do so. Write to us often, direct to the care of Messrs. John M. Bell & Conway, New Orleans. (Frances Burnley Taylor, dau. of Gilbert Dade Taylor, bro. of J.M.Taylor, m. John Murrell Bell of New Orleans, JDT). May the Lord bless you,your husband, the dear child with every blessing for life and salvation, prays

Yr. Affectionate Father
J.M.Taylor.

Letter addressed to Mrs. Sigismund Hamilton, Clinton, Miss.
Steamer Conway, 27th. July (I846)

My beloved Daughter;

Your dear Mothers health got no better, and mine became worse at Pascagoula, and we are now on our way to Kentucky. I wish we could see you the Doctor and the dear little Leila, but a little exertion affects your mother so much that she could not undergao the fatgue of going to Clinton. The mere effort of getting to the steamer at Pascagoula, and from the steamer to Mr. Massie's at New Orleans, and again to this boat on the river has brought on the chills and fevers again. We left New Orleans evening before last, and she had a slight chill and fever yesterday and again this morning. Most sincerely do I hope she will strengthen when we get into a higher latitude. I hope you find Lewis of use to you, you must make him attend to all your matters, and I expect you will find him a great help in making your preserves etc. He is a good cook and handy at almost any thing. John Foote your uncle Richard's son is in New Orleans, without business and without money, he is staying at Mr. Massie's, and very much afraid of the Yellow fever. He is very steady and appears to be amiable. I took the liberty to say to him that if he determined to leave New Orleans, I had no doubt you would be glad to see him. If you will write him invitation I think he will go up. He has been a great help to Elizabeth Massie, doing one half her housekeeping, making her preserves etc., and he would relieve you from a good deal of exertion. I have invited him to go to Patria as soon as we return. Your mother is quite anxious about your health, and bids me give her best love to you and tell you not to sew more than you are compelled to do until you get stronger, a more active life would be better for you. You had better ride out frequently in the Barouche. The boat shakes so much that I can not write with any satisfaction. You shall hear from me again before long. Write us to the care of Messrs. Smith & Shotwell, Louisville, Ky. Your mother joins in affectionate remembrances to the Doctor and warmest love and a hundred kisses to dear Leila.

Your affectionate
Father.

Remember us to the Servants.
Direct your letter to John Foote to the care of Kirkman & Dyas, New Orleans.

Another to Mrs. Sigismunda M. Hamilton, Clinton , Miss.
Cincinnati, 29th Sept I846.

My dear Daughter;

we have been here for upwards of two weeks, having stopped with the hope that a physician who resides here would be of service to your Mother, but I am sorry to say that her health, so far from improving, is decidedly worse than when we got here, and two or three times I have feared she would not live to get home. She has had frequent returns of chills & fevers which destroy her little remaining strength very fast. I read your last letter with great regret. I was greatly surprised to hear that the Doctor entertained the least idea of relinquishing his profession and sincerely hope he does not seriously entertain such an intention. It may not be very profitable but one thing is certain he would find it very difficult to get along without it, in fact I do not see how he could possibly do so, and although the profits may be small, yet he will find them of vast importance at the end of each year. I did hope after disposing of the crop of 1847 (1845?) that I should be able to render him some assistance, but my short crops keep me greatly involved. I owe a considerable amount of debt contracted by myself, exclusive of the heavy security debts which I have to pay, and I have nothing but bad news with regard to the present crop. I hope however, that two or three years will relieve me from the heavy pressure of debt under which I have been laboring so long, and enable me to do something for my children. I feel very sensibly the loss of the profits of my profession, but I am too old and infirm to continue to engage in the strifes and labors of the bar. I candidly informed both the Doctor and yourself of my involved condition before you married, and that it would be years before I could aid you. As to applying to your Uncle Richard (this was Richard Foote) about your grandfather's legacy to you, I do not feel authorized to do it, and I confess I am surprised at you making the request, or feeling any wish after what has transpired, to have the request made. He knows he would incur a risque by paying the money, and has already expressed his unwillingness to do so, and I should as soon think of begging any other boon as this, especially for purchasing articles which are by no means necessary. Two years will soon have gone, my dear Sigismund, and then you will have a right to apply for the money. Your mother never had a watch until the death of your lamented sister. Let us industriously and perseveringly discharge our duties to ourselves and families, and leave the result with God and he will take care of us and them. Above all let us look Him as our Great Friend, the Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, serving Him in spirit and in truth, and be always prepared for that good world where all is peace.

I shall try to sell out on my return home, and if I can succeed, should be glad for us to settle down together.
Your mother seems to be sleeping. Remember me to the Doctor, kiss dear Leila for me. May God bless you all, sincerely prays

Yr. Affectionate

Father.

You must all be certain to come to see us as soon as we get home.
We expect to leave here about the 7th. of next month.

DADE FAMILY.

The Dade family is of English descent, tracing back to the Magna Charta barons. The records show (see Compendium of American Genealogy, Virkus, Vol. VII, p. 844) that William Dade (I579-I659 of Tannington, County Suffolk, England, married first ; Mary Wingfield, who died I624/25.

I. They were parents of:

I. Maj. Francis Dade, b. in England I62I, came to Virginia I65I, under for political reasons it is thought, the assumed name of John Smith. After the Restoration of the Stuarts to the throne, he took back his rightful name of Francis Dade, as can be seen from the Court Minutes of Stafford Co. Va. He made a visit back to England, but on his return trip home, died at sea, I663. He married near I65I, Behethland Bernard, born near I635, daughter of Thomas Bernard (d. before Oct. IO I65I) and his wife Mary Behethland (dau. of Capt. Robert Behethland who came to Virginia in I607, with Capt. John Smith).
They had a number of children. After the death of Maj. Francis Dade, she m. 2nd., I664, Maj. Andrew Gilson, born near I628, and d. about I698, he was High Sheriff of Rappahannock Co. Va. I660. By this marriage there seems to have been only two children as follows:

I. Thomas Gilson, (I665-I707), m. Elizabeth Newton, who had; Thomas Gilson, Jr. and Behethland Gilson.
2. Behethland Gilson (I666-I693) m. Nehemiah Storke (I660-I693), I685.

Mrs. Behethland Gilson, left will dated Aug. 20 I7I6, and prob. in Westmoreland Co. Va. March 30 I720. She willed a silver tankard to her grandson, Dade Massey, and the residue of her estate to grandson, William Storke (I690-I726) who was her Executor. (See Va. Mag. Vol. XXXVIII, pp. I8I-I90, and Vol. XXXVII, 284-288).
Children of Maj. Francis Dade and Behethland Bernard were:

It appears that Frances Townshend, m. Ist., Francis Dade who left will dated Sept. I3 I694, Inventory June 8 I697. Soon after his death she m. 2nd., John Withers, Gent., of Stafford Co. (See Va. Mag. Vol. 5, p. 278, and Vol. 6, pp 409, 425). Capt. John Withers died shortly after, and his will was dated Aug. 29 I698, and his dau. Sarah Withers was named Executrix, evidently she was child by a previous marriage. In I699, a deed in Stafford Co. from Frances Withers relict of John Withers, about to marry Rice Hooe (see Hooe Family No. 3), conveying property to her sons; Robert Dade, Francis Dade and Cadwallader Dade. In I699/I700, a deed from Rice Hooe (who m. Frances, widow of Capt. John Withers) and Frances his wife, releasing to Capt. Richard Fossaker (Burgess from Stafford Co. I703) who had m. Sarah Withers, all claims he might have as having married the relict of Capt. John Withers.

Not having seen the will of Francis Dade, it appears they had thes children, including those mentioned above:

Virginia.

One version of the Hooe family states they are descended from Robert Hoc of Hoo, Kent Co., England, who died I000 A.D., another account claims the family came to Virginia from Wales.

I. Rice Hooe (I599-I655) came to Virginia, first in I6I8, and located in Charles City County, where he was Burgess from Shirley Hundred Island, I632-33. It seems he returned to , as the records show that on May 2 I636, he was granted I200 acres in Charles City, for the transportation of himself and wife , and 22 other persons. He had other grants on various dates in this County, also in James City Co. On June 4 I655, Mr. Rice Hooe was a Justice for Charles City Co., and a Vestryman of Westover Parish. Dec. 3 I655, he was mentioned as Rice Hooe, dec'd., and Sarah Hooe was his admx. (See Va. Magazine Vol.48, pp. 270274).
Their son:

2. Rice Hooe (I640-I694) was probably born in Charles City Co. or James City Co., about I640. He is said to have married Jane Seymour, but no record is found. On Dec.3 I656, as Rice Hooe, Gent., son and heir of Rice Hooe, Gent. dec'd., with advice and consent of his mother and guardian, Mrs. Sarah Hooe sold 300 acres of land in James City Co. On Oct.3 I665, Rice Hooe was granted administration on the estate of of his mother Sarah Hooe, dec'd. It seems he married the relict of Richard Nicholas, by Sept. I0 I660 in James City Co. It is thought he moved to Stafford Co. Va. about I67I, as on April 2I I67I, Rice Hooe was granted I000 acres of land in Stafford Co. By Dec. 3I I689, he apparently married the widow of Thomas Howard. He died by Oct. I I694, as on that date Col. William Fitzhugh asked for a grant of the I000 acres above, which had been left by Rice Hooe to his son Rice Hooe who had sold it to Col. Fitzhugh. On same date Rice Hooe received a grant of II00 with Thomas Gilson, near Mr. Francis Dade.
He had son: (by his wife Mrs. Nicholas, who could be Jane Seymour)

3. Lt. Col. Rice Hooe, was born about I660 in Charles City Co. Va., and died in Stafford Co. Va., April I9 I726. He was a prominent man in Stafford, where he was a Justice, July I0 I700, and a member of the House of Burgesses I702-3 etc. He was executor of the will of Sigismund Massey, Prob. May I0 I692, also of Robert Alexander's will, Dec. 22 I703. It is said the old Hooe home "Barnesfield" in King Geo. Co. Va., was built by him in I7I5.
The following account of his various marriage is very interesting:
First, to Mrs. Robert Massey, Feb. I0 I69I/2, dau. of Capt. Francis Dade (see Dade Family No.) and (Massey Family No. I), she died a few years later. Oct. 29 I699, Benjamin Massey bro. of Dade Massey, spoke of his father-in-law (stepfather) Rice Hooe.
Second, to Anne Howson, I695, (dau. of Robert Howson of Stafford). On Jan. 8 I698/9, Rice Hooe and Anne his wife, Charles Calvert and Mary his wife, and Frances Howson, daughters and co-heirs of Robert Howson divided his estate.
Howson Hooe , born Feb. I696 , was their son.

Third, to Mrs. John Withers, nee France Townshend (widow of Capt. John Withers, and before that widow of Francis Dade, whose will was dated Sept. I3 I694, see Dade Fam. No.2). This marriage was made by Nov.9 I699. She was dau. of Col. Robert Townshend (I640-Sept. I675) and his wife Mary Langhorne, all of Stafford Co. Va. She died Apr.26 I726 (St. Paul's Parish Register). Said to have had 4 children, Rice, John, Gerard and Sarah. (see Va. Mag. Vol.48, pp.270-274, and 368-372).

MARSHALL FAMILY

KING GEORGE CO. VA. and MASON CO. KY.

This family is evidently of the same Marshalls who were early in Lancaster, Richmond, Westmoreland, Old Rappahannock, and Essex Counties, Virginia. They also spread out over the Counties of Caroline, Stafford, Spottsylvania, Prince William, Orange, Fauquier, Culpeper, Fairfax, Loudon and others. Many Marshalls from these counties moved to Kentuck, at an early date.

The Marshall Family, compiled by William McClung Paxton in I884 deals mainly with the line of Thomas Marshall who died in Westmoreland Co. Va., May I704. He was said be a son of Capt. John Marshall, by tradition an emigrant to Virginia about I650. He was son of James A. Paxton, and was born in Washington, Mason Co. Ky., March 2I I8I9, his mother being Maria Marshall, born in Mason Co. Ky., July 20 I795, daughter of Alexander Keith Marshall, son of Col. Thomas Marshall. Paxton seems to have based his record of the early Marshalls partly on tradition. Much data has since found which changes the traditions and in some cases adds to the confusion. A long article by Maj. Gen. Thomas M. Anderson in the Virginia Magazine Vol. XXII, pages 328-33I, gives the matter in detail. The Va. Mag. XXXIX, I93I, page 268, gives an old Marshall Bible record, which seems to be tradition back of Thomas Marshall(whose wife was apparently Martha Sherwood instead of Pendleton, Va. Mag. Vol. XXXIV, pages 82-83) and the names of his children are uncertain, except his son William Marshall.

The following records show that Joane Bennett was granted 450 acres in the County of Charles River for the transportation of; Ann Winter, Jon. Roote, Jon. Marshall, Thomas Prewitt, Andrew Chant, Jon. Morris, Pole Carplight, May 6 I636 (Va. Mag. Vol. 5 p.94).

Colonial Churches of Isle of Wight and Southampton Counties Virginia, by George Carrinton Mason, pages 45-46, mentions Deed dated Jan. 9 I667, in which John Valentine confirms to Mr. John Marshall a tract of land, originally sold to Marshall by Valentine's father in a Deed dated Jan. I3 I638 (I7th. Century Isle of Wight, p. 232, by Boddie, shows this John Marshall was the father of John and Humphrey Marshall of that County).

Francis Slaughter was in Isle of Wight Co. Va., see Indenture between Margaret Upton and Francis Slaughter, dated 8th. of March I655, about land that Col. John Upton sold to Capt. John Batt, land that was due said Upton, 23rd. Sept. I637. (See I7th. Cent. Isle of Wight, pages 523, and 706, gives Moore Fauntelroy, as a Burgess from Nansemond County, I643). These persons are later found in Lancaster and Richmond Counties in Virginia.

Northumberland Co. Order Book No.2, page 4, 20, Sept. I652 (Va. Colonial Abstracts, Vol. No.2 by Beverly Fleet), Mr. Thomas Speke due 300 acres land for the transportation of John Marshall and five other persons. This Certificate made in William Cock's name, and delivered unto him by Mr. Speke's own order. Thomas Speke, William Cocke, William Brodhurst, William Spicer, Henry Hurst, Edward Hudson, Robert Newman, John Rosier, Andrew Monroe, John Walton, were among I00 signers of the Northumberland Oath, Apr. II I652, at Court held that date (See Va. Mag. Vol XLIX, p.33 Jan. I94I.) Thomas Speke, Walter Brodhurst and John Mottrom were among the Justices holding this Court. Walter Brodhurst was a member of the House of Burgesses. We also find Walter Brodhurst in Westmoreland Co., I0th. of March I655/56, a witness to the Instrument of Elizabeth Marshall widow of Capt. Roger Marshall, renouncing Administration of her late husband's estate (Va. Colonial Abstracts Vol.23, p.53, Beverly Fleet). William & Mary Quarterly Vol 7 p. I27 gives this; Fort Royal alias Rickanock, with 350 acres on Pamunkey River, King William County, granted to Mainwaring Hammond, Esq., March I5 I649 by purchase from Capt. Roger Marshall, to whom it was granted I4th. of March inst., on condition his keeping ten men there for three years, which he performed (see Henings Statutes Vol. I, p.327), Grand Assembly at James City, 5th. Day of October I646.

Capt. Roger Marshall filed mark for hogs and cattle, 3rd. Sept., I655, and was a witness in Westmoreland County I8 April I654. (See Va. Colonial Abstracts Vol. 22, p.68, Beverly Fleet).

There are many other records of Marshalls in these Counties, but only above are given so as to show something on their early background. It might be well to add that Southern Virginia Marshalls are probably from the Isle of Wight family, this applies especially to Brunswick, Amelia, Mecklenburg, and Chesterfield Counties.

Now we will take up the King George Co. Marshalls in detail. However, it will be well to mention that in I654, Lancaster Co. had two Parishes, and in I656 Rappahannock was created from the Upper Parish. In I66I, Rappahannock Co. was divided into two Parishes, the up river one was named Sittinborne, and in I68I the West part of Sittinborne was made into St. Mary's, and in I7I3 St. Mary's was divided by putting part in Richmond County as Hanover Parish. Hanover Parish in I720 became King George County. Rappahannock County in I692 was replaced by Richmond and Essex Counties, and was omitted from the list of Counties in I693. Lancaster County was formed I652. First , Lancaster, then Rappahannock, then Richmond divided what became Westmoreland which was formed in I653 from Northumberland Co. Va. (See Meade's Old Families etc.)

William Marshall was living Dec. 29 I692 in Richmond Co., St. Mary's Parish on North side of the Rappahannock River, as can be seen from this Deed (Richmond Co. D.B.No.2, p.I2); Adam Woffendall of Richmond Co. to William Powell of same County for 2000 lbs. of tobacco, 50 acres of land adjacent Main Branch of Chincoteage (Cincoteague) above Easter's plantation , the line of William Marshall, the line of Mr. Francis Slaughter along the path of William Brown's tree. Witnesses: James Taylor and John Brown.
Jan. 20 I699, same County and Parish, John Battaile, William Marshall, Simon and John Miller witnessed will of Henry French.
Feb. 3 I704, same County and Parish (W.B.7 p.6I), William Marshall, Lewis Jones and Richard Tankersley witnessed will of Charles Teboe.

The following is from Richmond Co. D.B. No.7, p.229; To all people to whom the present writing shall come, I, William Marshall , Senior, of the Parish of Hanover in said County of Richmond, send greetings, Know Ye, that I the said William Marshall for and in consideration of the natural affection I bear unto my daughter Ann Johnson, as also for divers and other good reasons and considerations, me hereunto moving, have given, granted and by these presents, give, grant and confirm unto my daughter Ann Johnson, a certain tract or parcel of land lieing and being on the northside of Rappahannock River and upon Chinquateague run bounded as followeth; beginning at a red oak line tree of Samuel Wharton standing by a path that leads to the creek, thence running along the said Wharton's to the corner tree by the Run side, thence running over the main run along the line of Samuel Wharton to a red oak standing on the hill by the main road, thence down the hill to a Pissimon tree between the two bridges, thence to the mouth of a deep branch, then up the said branch to a new marked line, thence along the said line to the first mentioned station. The said land being by estimation one hundred acres more or less. I give and grant as aforesaid unto my daughter Ann Johnson and to her and her heirs forever to have and to hold said land with all the privilidges with all the immunities thereunto belonging in as large and ample manner as may be collected out of the patent. As witness my hand and seal this 2nd. day of September I7I7.

William Marshall (Seal)

Signed and sealed in presence of:
Francis Slaughter
Ann Slaughter.

At a Court held for Richmond County the fourth day of September I7I7, Edward Marshall by virtue of a Power of Attorney from William Marshall to him in that behalf made acknoweledged this the said William Marshall's Deed of Gift for land unto his daughter Ann Johnson, and it was admitted to Record.

Teste; M. Beckwith, Clerk.

This Edward Marshall must have been a brother or near relative of William Marshall. Francis Slaughter was perhaps a relative, and probably a son of Francis Slaughter (I653-I7I8) a wealthy planter of Richmond Co. and his wife Margaret Hudson whom he married I679 (Compendium of Am. Genealogy, Vol.4, pages 624 and 625).

King George Co. D.B.No.3, pages I5 & I7, date not shown, but near I750, deed Edward Marshall and wife to Richard Robinson, between Thomas Peatross and Martha his wife of Parish of St. Mary's and County of Caroline, also Edward Marshall and Sarah his wife of Hanover Parish County of King George of other part, Witnesseth; that for 5 shillings money of England paid by said Richard Robinson, we bargain and sell all that tract of land situated and being on Cincoteague Creek in County of King George containing I00 acres of land which by will from James Mathews to son Andrew Mathews and in default of heirs to fall to his daughter Martha, wife of Richard Tankersley. The right of the third belonging still to Sarah former wife of Andrew Mathews, now wife of Edward Marshall, which said third is now sold to said Richard Robinson etc.

I. We start our record with William Marshall, known as Senior, who was probably born about I670 or earlier possibly in Old Rappahannock Co. Va. He was related to Thomas Marshall who married Martha Sherwood in that County and died in Westmoreland Co. Va., May I704, the ancestor of Chief Justice John Marshall. William Marshall died in King George Co. Va. I749, leaving will dated July 24 I746, (D.B.No.4, p.438), his wife was Ann Hudson, possibly a sister of Margaret Hudson the wife of Francis Slaughter (I653-I7I8), if not she was a near relative. They were living on Cincoteague Creek, Hanover Parish, King George Co. Va. April 2 I742, land adjoining Francis Slaughter and William Randolph. Children as shown by Will settlement (King Geo. D.B.No.4, pages, 40, 4I and 438), wife Ann, Were: (See NOTE below)

2. William Marshall (see No.I) son of William Marshall and Ann Hudson, lived in Hanover Parish, King George Co.Va., married Mary Piper daughter of Jonathan Piper. (Col. William Monroe of Westmoreland Co.Va., m. Ist.,Miss Triplett, 2nd. Rachel Piper, dau. of John Piper who mentioned her in his will I759. It has always been understood, says Judge Thomas B.Monroe of Kentucky, that the wife of John Piper was Ann Marshall, a relative of John and Humphrey Marshall, and of Col. Thomas Marshall of Kentucky father of the Chief Justice. Jonathan Piper son of John Piper, murdered his cousin James Marshall, Jan.26 I75I at Leedstown, King Geo.Co. Mary dau. of Jonathan Piper, m. her cousin William Marshall as stated. This information was contained in a letter to me dated Oct.6 I948, from Mr. George H.S.King of Fredericksburg, Va.) 3. William Marshall (See No.2) son of William Marshall and Mary Piper, on Oct.7 I784, with his wife Mary sold I50 acres of land in Hanover Parish, King Geo.Co.Va.to his brother Samuel Marshall, excepting the grave yard. This land lying beside the lands of Col. Thomas Turner, John Strother, Thomas Smith, Amay Settle, Hugh Gordon, William Johnson, and William Marshall, dec'd. (D.B.No.7 page I3). Col. Thomas Turner was Colonial Clerk of King Geo. Co., and lived at Port Conway near the Caroline County line, and had married about I767, a dau. of Col. William Fauntleroy of Naylor's Hole, Richmond County. It is possible that William Marshall m. Mary Quisenberry. (Humphrey Quisenberry left will in Westmoreland Co.Va. dated Jan.30 I773 and prob. Sept.24 I776, in which he mentions daughters, Mary Marshall and Ann Piper. John Carter, Sr. and Presley Neale, Executors. Paxton's Marshall Family says that John Marshall bro. of Col. Thomas Marshall had wife Jane Quisenberry). We have found no record of the death of William Marshall in King George Co., nor of his wife, they may have died after I795, or may have moved to another County. With the information we have, it is reasonable to conclude, they were the parents of these children:

(IO) I. John Marshall, b. in King Geo.Co.,m. Elizabeth Berry, moved to Kentucky near or before I790.

It appears his children were still young. Deed Book No.8, p.65, shows that Issa Marshall Feb.4 I796, sold this mill known as Marshall's Mill to Daniel McCarty Fitzhugh, with one acre of land. She was then living in Westmoreland Co. Va.

2. ~~~~~~~ Marshall.

I0. John Marshall (see No.3) son of William Marshall, and it is thought, Mary Quisenberry, was of King George Co. Va. He married there near or before I780, Elizabeth Berry of "Berry Plain". This information was from an old Marshall Bible record quoted by Mrs. John M. Prewitt of Mt. Sterling, Ky. in I956 (also see Va. Mag. Vol. 63, p. 470, Oct. I955). There appears to be good reason to place Elizabeth Berry as the daughter of Thomas Berry and Elizabeth Washington who were married Nov. I9 I758 in Stafford Co. Va. (See Massey Family No. 5). The following Notes will give the Berry and Washington connections.

NOTES

Capt. John Washington (I695-I742) of Stafford Co. Va. son of John Washington (I667-I7I7) and Mary Townshend (see Page I85) married Mary Massey dau. of Capt. Dade Massey who was High Sheriff of Stafford Co. I703. They were parents of Elizabeth Washington, b. Dec. 2I I737, who m. Nov. I9 I758, Thomas Berry in St. Paul's Parish, Stafford Co. Va.

Henry Berry came from England I656 and settled in Lancaster Co. Va. His will is found in Old Rappahannock Co. Va., dated I672, he was b. near I6-00 and d. I677. His wife was Ann. They had: William Berry (I650-I72I) whose will was probated in King Geo. Co. Va. I72I. He m. Margaret Doughty, dau. of Enoch Doughty son of Rev. Francis Doughty.
They had Enoch Berry (I704-I763) who died in King Geo. Co. His wife was Dulcibella Bunbury, whom he married in Stafford Co., Dec. I2 I726. They had; Thomas Berry (ca I727-I8I3) whose home was "Berry Plain" in King George Co. Va. who m. Elizabeth Washington, and had Elizabeth Berry who married above John Marshall, though no proof has so far been found the evidence is convincing. The fact that the old Bible of John Marshall's family mentions Elizabeth Berry's father Thomas Berry, as being of "Berry Plain" identifies the family with the King George family at "Berry Plain". Thomas Berry who married Elizabeth Washington left will in King George Co. Va. Will Book 3, I804-I846, as follows;

I Thomas Berry of the County of King George & Parish of Hanover being sick and weak in body but of sound mind memory and understanding do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and making void all former Wills by me at any heretofore made; "Imprimis, Whereas agreeable to a contract entered into between my three sons, Washington, John and Laurence with my consent and approbation, my said son Laurence hath paid to the said Washington and John his brothers, the several sums of four hundred pounds as a full consideration for their and each of their interests in & to the tract of land or plantation whereon I live at and after my death Now therefore give and devise to my said son Laurence the said tract of land & plantation above mentioned to have and to hold the same to him & his heirs forever. Item, I give and bequeath to my grandson John Thornton A. Washington to be furnished by my said son Laurence when the said Thornton arrives at the age of twenty one, one good feather bed and furniture as a token of my affection. Item; Having already given to each of my other children such part of my estate as I intended for them, I now devise, give and bequeath unto my said son Laurence & his heirs forever all the residue of my estate either real or personal or of what nature or kind so ever. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight.

Test; Garvin Corbin Turberville
James D. Dishman
Laurence Berry

Thomas Berry (Seal)

At a monthly meeting held for King George County the 6th day of January, I8I4, the aforegoing last Will and Testament of Thomas Berry deceased being proved by the oaths of Garvin Corbin Turberville and Laurence Berry (Junior) two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who also made oath that they saw James D. Dishman the other subscribing witness thereto subscribe his name as a witness to said Will in the presence of the testator and in their presence and the Court being also well acquainted with the writing of the said Dishman, the said will was ordered to be recorded. Teste; Laurence Berry, Clk.

It is claimed by some writers that above Thomas Berry had only four children, which is based on an account of the Washington family written in I847, by Lund Washington (I767-I853), and he does not seem to have been too accurate in some cases, especially as to some of the Washington and Foote marriages. It is stated that Richard Foote (I743-I778/9) married a Washington, the fact is he m. Margaret Helm, and also that Richard Foote (I704-) m. a Washington or "Lund" when he really m. Catherine Fossaker, Oct. 6 I726. It would appear that the reason Elizabeth Berry was not mentioned in her father's will, was the fact that she died at least eight years before the will was written, and had already been given what her father intended for her to have, when she married about I780, John Marshall, and probably moved from King George to another

NOTES (continued)

County, and was one of " to each [illegible] my other children such part of my estate as I intended for them". It is thought that Elizabeth Berry was the oldest child, and all of the children would be as follows;

I. Elizabeth Berry, b. about I759, m. near I780, John Marshall (seeNo. IO)
2. Mildred Berry, b. about I760, d. near I785, in Berkeley Co. Va., m. Dec. 26 I779, in Charles Co. Md., Thornton Washington, had one son.
3. John W. Berry, b. Mar. 20 I762, d. Apr. I3 I852 in Oldham Co. Ky., m. I792, Ann Taylor. They had fourteen children.
4. Washington Berry , b. near I764, d. May 4 I8I3 in Campbell Co. Ky. He m. Sept. 27 I79I, in Caroline Co. Va., Alice Thornton Taylor (I773-I835) dau. of Col. James Taylor (I732-I8I4) of "Midway" Caroline Co. Va. (see Taylor Family No. 7) and Ann Hubbard. They had I3 Children.
5. Laurence Berry, b. near I766, d. June I4 I822, in King Geo. Co. Va. He m. May II I790, Catherine Brook Hodge who d. I8I4. Had II children.

The U.S. Census of I8IO of Campbell Co. Ky., shows Washington Berry, with a large family, and John Marshall, I male I6 to 26 and I female. This John Marshall is placed as his nephew, son of John Marshall and Elizabeth Berry, who had settled in Mason Co. Ky. Thomas Berry above , bought July 7 I768, 300 acres in King George Co. Va. from Charles Carter of "Cleve" and changed the name of the "Farm" to "Berry Plain".
Some of the Berry family moved to Frederick Co. Va., and we also find there (census of I790) the wealthy Col. Warner Washington and John Washington. Thomas Berry is listed with a large family, he was a cousin of Thomas Berry of "Berry Plain" ,King Geo. Co. He married Frances Ann Kendall of King Geo. Co., and his will dated Feb. 20 I796, was probated in Frederick Co., I8I9, and alson in Mason Co. Ky.

Children of Thomas Berry and Frances Ann Kendall were:

I. Margaret Berry, married Col. Robert Rankin.
2. Elizabeth Berry, married ------ Calmes.
3. Joseph Berry.
4. Samuel Berry.
5. Jane Berry, married John Kercheval.
6. William Berry.
7. Sarah Berry ,married William Kennan, first Sheriff of Fleming Co. Ky., his sister, Frances Maitland Kennan, married Capt. Thomas Marshall, b. in Fauquier Co. Va. Oct. 27 I76I, died in Mason Co. Ky. March I9 I8I7, son of Col. Thomas Marshall.
8. Catherine Berry.

Members of both Berry families moved to Kentucky, and they were cousins

IO. John Marshall and his wife Elizabeth Berry and a family of small children moved to Kentucky I788 to I790, and settled in Mason Co. where the Court orders (B-200) show that he bought 200 acres on Bull Creek from Maj. Charles Pelham, June 20 I794. His wife died about this time, as he married again and we find him with his 2nd. wife Tryphosa -------- selling II6 acres of above land to his brother William Marshall, Dec. I I795. William Marshall with his wife Dorothy Roy had sold their land in Hanover Parish, King George Co. Va. on Cincoteague Creek, Oct. 3 I793, and shortly thereafter joined his brother John in Mason Co. The records show that they lived until their deaths on adjoining farms.

My grandmother Martha Ann Marshall, a grand-daughter of John Marshall, married Samuel Washington Bryan. She gave me much information on the family about I898, and I was careful to preserve the notes I took at that time. She stated the Marshalls were closely related to Chief Justice John Marshall, and also related to the Randolphs and Pocahontas. It seems some of the children of John Marshall did not care too much for their step-mother, and left home as soon as possible, among them being her father Reuben Marshall, who ran away to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he seems to have had relatives, as his father knew where to find him, and as he did not want to go back home apprenticed him to a blacksmith in Cincinnati. As soon as he reached the age of 2I, he came down the River and settled in Mississippi in I806. He went back to Maysville, Ky., when his father became very sick, but was too late to see him alive. John Marshall left will in Mason Co. Ky., prob. in Maysville, June I827. He left his wife Tryphosa I/3 of his land during her lifetime, and then it went to his dau. Catherine Shepherd, a small amount of money was given his daughter Ann Marshall to be paid yearly until she married. His other children, probably all by his first wife Elizabeth Berry, were left 5 shillings each. Tryphosa Marshall, Elijah Shepherd and wife Catherine sold the land, April 25 I829. Most of the children seem to have left Mason County early, Thomas Marshall possibly the only one who remained. According to my grandmother her grandfather John Marshall was a prominent and wealthy citizen of Maysville. His children as listed in Will (W.B. G p.77) but probably not in order of birth were:

(II) I. George Marshall, born in Va. , came to La. and Miss. near I809.
2. Jane Marshall, m. ---------- Sharpe, no record.
3. John Marshall, married and went to Campbell Co. Ky.

(30) William Marshall a grandson of John Marshall, was son of John, James, or Thomas Marshall.

II. George Marshall (see NO.IO) son of John Marshall and Elizabeth Berry, was born in King George Co.Va., and may have gone with his parents to Mason Co.Ky. However about I807 or earlier he came down the Miss.River to New Orleans, and settled at Opelousas in St. Landry Parish, La. It appears from the Census of I850, that he must have lived in Miss. for a number of years, as two of his sons are shown as being born in that State. He was in La. in I8II, and served as a Major in War of I8I2, being in the Battle of New Orleans, Jan.8 I8I5. Much of the information about George Marshall's family came from him. He wrote me that old Marshall Bible belonging to his grandfather containing records back to I732 washed away in a Delta flood, and his father's Bible also with much information destroyed when his home burned to the ground. He married May 4 I890, Sallie A. Davidson, dau. of Dr. June Davidson of Oxford, Miss., she was born I868, and d. Apr. 29I9I9. EASTMAN FAMILY.

A very comprehensive History of the Family was compiled by Guy S. Rix of Concord New Hampshire, and published in I90I. It is a great work, and covers the early Eastmans in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, the spreading out to many other states. While errors are to be found, these are not many when the size of the work is considered. The author does not go into the English ancestry of the family, beyond stating that the immigrant, Roger Eastman, was from Langford, County of Wilts. However we find a statement later by Louis Leverett of Washington, D.C., that Roger Eastman was baptized in Charleton, England, April 4 I6I0, and died in Salisbury Mass., Dec. I6 I694, and was son of Nicholas Eastman and wife Barbara of Charleton, Eng. (This data on Nicholas Eastman is found in Comp. Of American Genealogy-Virkus, Vol.4 p.284, and that he was son of Roger Eastman, who died I604, Charleton, Eng.). The Coat of Arms for the Eastman Family is shown in Crozier's General Armory as follows: Arms- Gules, in the dexter chief point an Escrutcheon argent charged with a lion rampant sable. Crest- A swan collared and lined proper. Gules red engraved perpendicular lines.

The Vital Statistics for many Counties in Massachusetts, have been published furnishing valuable records of births, marriages, and deaths, back to earliest settlers. Tracing family records is therefore fairly easy in that State.

I. Roger Eastman came in the ship "Constance" to Salisbury, Mass., where he settled, I638. His wife Sarah is thought to have been a Smith, she was born I62I, and died I697.

GUICE and HARMAN FAMILIES.

INTRODUCTION.

An extract from a letter written by Mrs. Hubert G.Todd, April 25 I939, New Orleans, La., also from a letter written, February 26 I939, by Miss Eunice J.Stockwell of Greenville, Miss., will serve as an introduction to these families:

April 25 I939.

Mr. J.D.Tillman,Jr.,
Meridian, Miss.
Dear Mr. Tillman:

Your letter asking for information about the Guice family, which was addressed to my mother, Mrs. Frederick A.Dicks, was received several days ago. She died in I934, but some years ago she employed a genealogist in Philadelphia to do some research work regarding the early history of her father's family, and we have the line complete back to Christopher Geist or Guice, who was born in Germany, Sept.25 I7I8, and settled in Pennsylvania in I740, having traveled to this country on the ship "Lydia". The family is of French origin, having fled to Germany after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. This Christopher Guice married, in Pennsylvania perhaps, Margaret Plowhead, in I744 or 45. Fifteen children were born of this marriage ----------

Christopher Guice and his family were of the Lutheran faith and about I776 moved from Pennsylvania to Tennessee,and in I792 moved again into the Mississippi Territory, west of Pearl River, where they had secured British and Spanish grants of land. There is a Spanish Patent dated March 25, I795 granted to Abraham Guice, who was probably the "Absolom Guice" of the Bible record. Maybe he was the witness of Salome Harman"s marriage ---

Yours sincerely,
Annie Lee Dicks Todd.
(Mrs. Hubert G.Todd)

Greenville, Mississippi, Feb.26 I939.

------- "It has been suggested that our Guices are from the famous French family of Guise- as to that your guess is as good as anyone's. I shall now copy from my Guice data any items which I think might interest you, and perhaps make a few comments as I progress.

Part of a letter written by Mrs. Amanda Guice (see No.3) Armstrong (Compiler of the Guice family tree, a copy which I have in my possession), Aug. 2I I902. (Mrs. Armstrong was at that time 8I years old).

My dear Nephew: I will now endeavour to answer your questions, as near as my ability serves me, from what I have heard and seen in the long ago. There is no doubt in my mind from what I have read in history, and from what I have heard, that our ancestors were originally French. (She evidently refers to the Guices, as the name Plowhead is pure Anglo-Saxon). They were driven out in some of the feud there (religious persecutions?) into Germany and stayed there until they became identified with that nation. They moved in a colony to America about I749, with some of the Kinnisons and settled near Philadelphia, Pa., where they reared and educated their children. About I776-I778 they moved to Tennessee, where most of them were farmers. About I792 they all moved again, coming to the Wilderness country and secured pre-emption rights or Spanish grants in what is now Franklin County, Mississippi. (I remember hearing my mother say that one of her aunts held one of these Spanish grants, but expected to destroy it before her death as the land had been sold, and she did not wish any trouble to ever arise as to the title, for as she said. "A Spanish grant went back of any other deed in proving ownership of land". E.J.S.).

She, Mrs. Armstrong says, "They all moved in a colony with some of the Kinnisons, one of the Kinnisons having married a Guice, to Pa." In her letter she told more fully of her own branch of the family. Her father, Captain Jacob Guice, took part in the War of I8I2, being stationed at Baton Rouge. When the war was over the men were sent up the Mississippi by steam-boat. Travel by boat was very slow, the steam-boat being rather new as a means of transportation, too slow in fact for Jacob in his haste to get home. He left the boat, walked overland- and beat the boat to Natchez!

In "Mississippi the Heart of the South" by the late Dr. Dunbar Rowland, Vol. I, page 283, is given under English Land Grants in Mississippi, I768-I779, Christophe Gise, Nov. II 1778, 706 acres; on page 33I under Spanish Census of the Natchez District I792, are the names Nataniel Kennison and Miguel Guice, evidently Spanish spelling of the names Nathaniel Kinnison and Michael Guice.

Yours very truly,
Eunice J.Stockwell.

Miss Stockwell sent me a copy of the family tree mentioned above, from that and other data collected by me, we are able to obtain a very interesting outline of the early settlers in this country.

6. Hannah Guice (see No.I) daughter of Christopher Guice and Margaret Plowhead, was born in Pennsylvania, and probably married there near I775, Jacob Harman, and they moved with the Guice family to Tennessee. The record of Jacob Harman and Hannah Guice is found in the St. Landry Catholic Church Parish Records at Opelousas, Louisiana. This records that on June 2 I797, the Spanish Military Post chaplain, Pedro de Zamora, united in marriage Abel Eastman son of John Eastman and Judith Jewell (see Eastman Family No.5) and Salome Harman belonging to the Lutheran Sect, daughter of Jacob Harman and Hannah Guice (Anna Spanish phonetic spelling), residents of the Post and natives of Strausburg, Alsace. (see page 225 for this record in Spanish, which is found in Marriage Record Book No.I, Supplement No.6).

The Pennsylvania Records show that many Harmans and Hermans sailed from Rotterdam to America between I727 and I776. (see Rupp's Thirty Thousand Names of Immigrants). A number of them were named Jacob. Our Jacob Harman was probably brought over by his parents as a small boy, from Strausburg about I750, and lived in Pennsylvania for a while, then moved to Tenn., and from there to the Natchez District, Mississippi Territory. There is a Spanish Grant to him at Natchez in I790. Then in I792 he bought land on Bayou Placquemine Brulee in St. Landry Parish, near Military Post of Opelousas, Louisiana. He died May I809, and the State Records show that a claim was filed in I8I3 , in which his heirs were mentioned. (I located a file case for this Claim in the Land Office, at Baton Rouge, La., but the papers were missing, JDT). After the death of his wife Hannah Guice, it appears that Jacob Harman, married Mary ------- and had one child. The known children of Hannah Guice and Jacob Harman, with approximate dates of birth are placed as follows:

NOTE

Col. Frederick Stump, father of Anna Stump who married Jonathan Guice, was b. in Heidelburg Township, Pennsylvania, I723. He was of German descent, and finally settled in Tenn. near Nashville.
